THE CURTAIN RISES

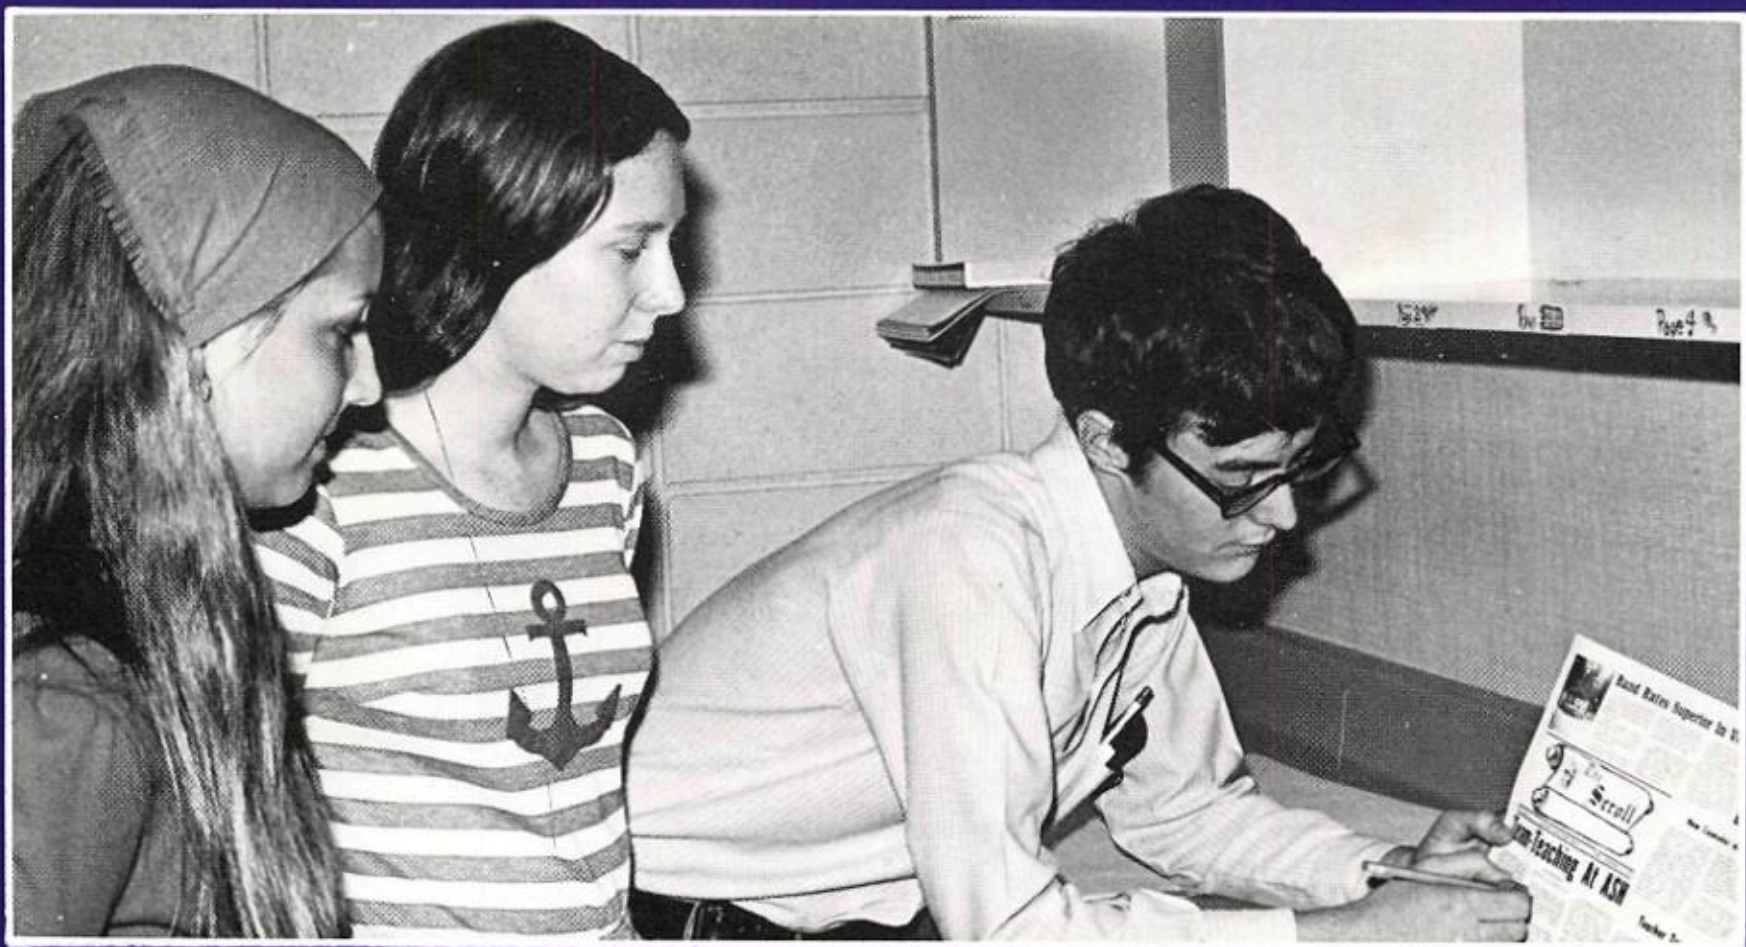

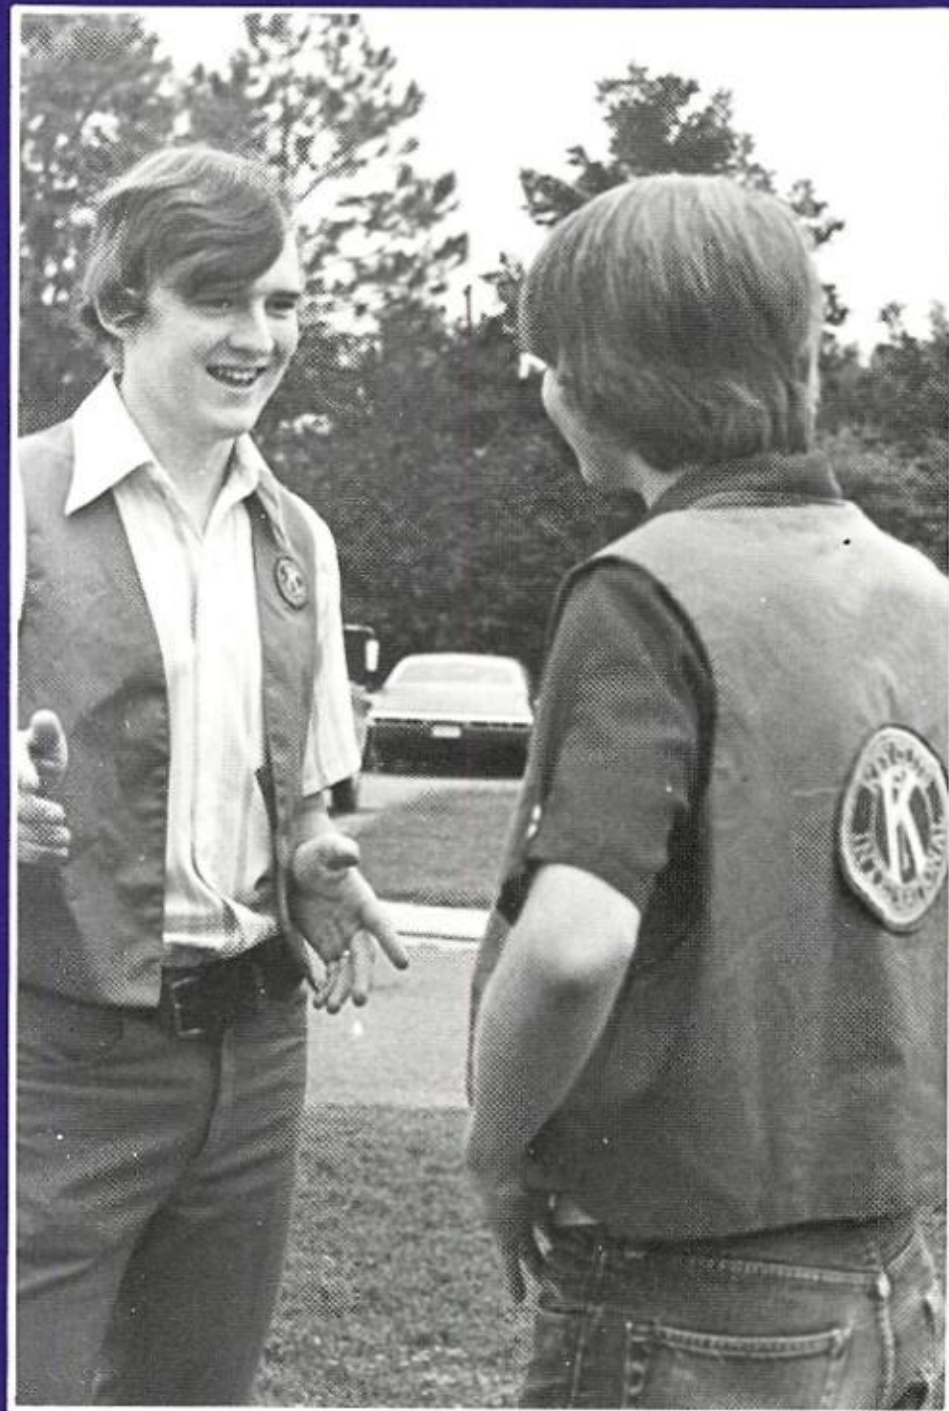

... "On stage, TROJANS!"

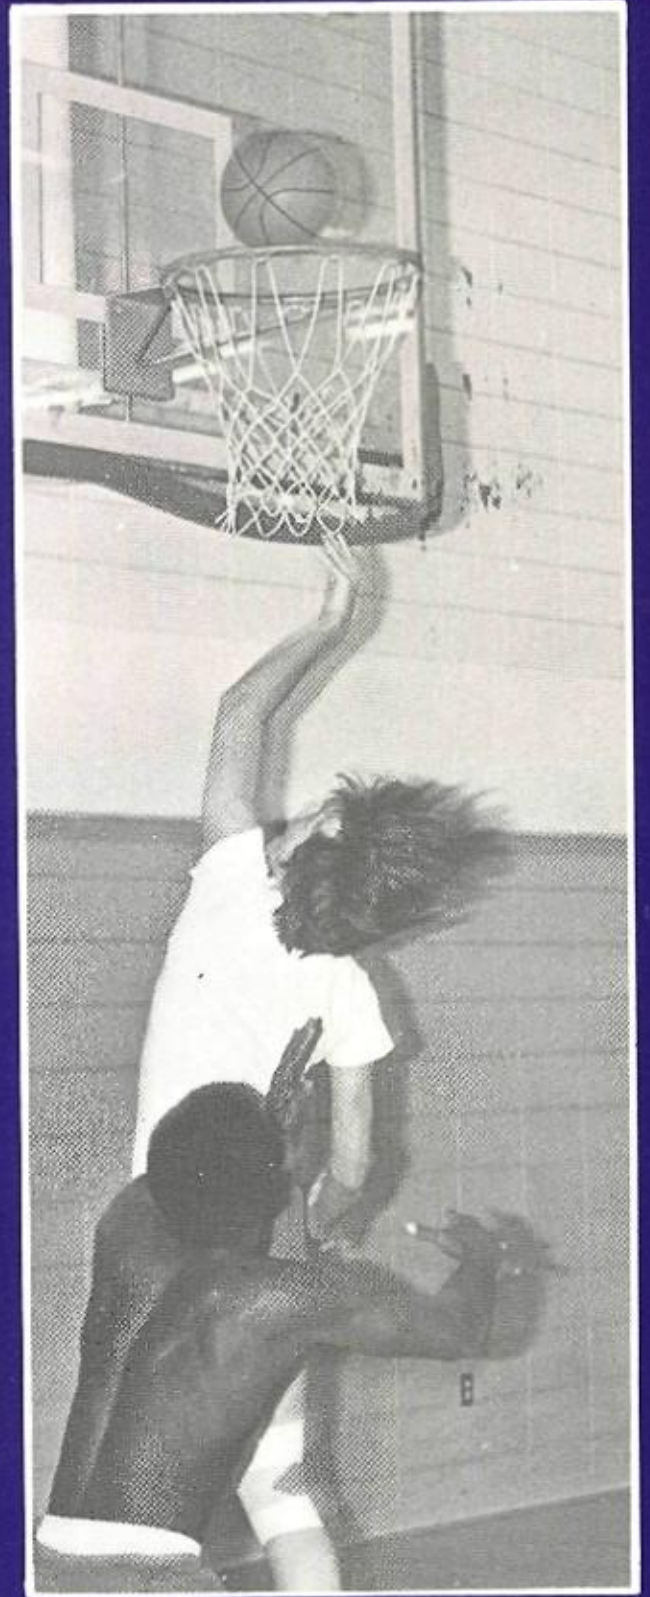

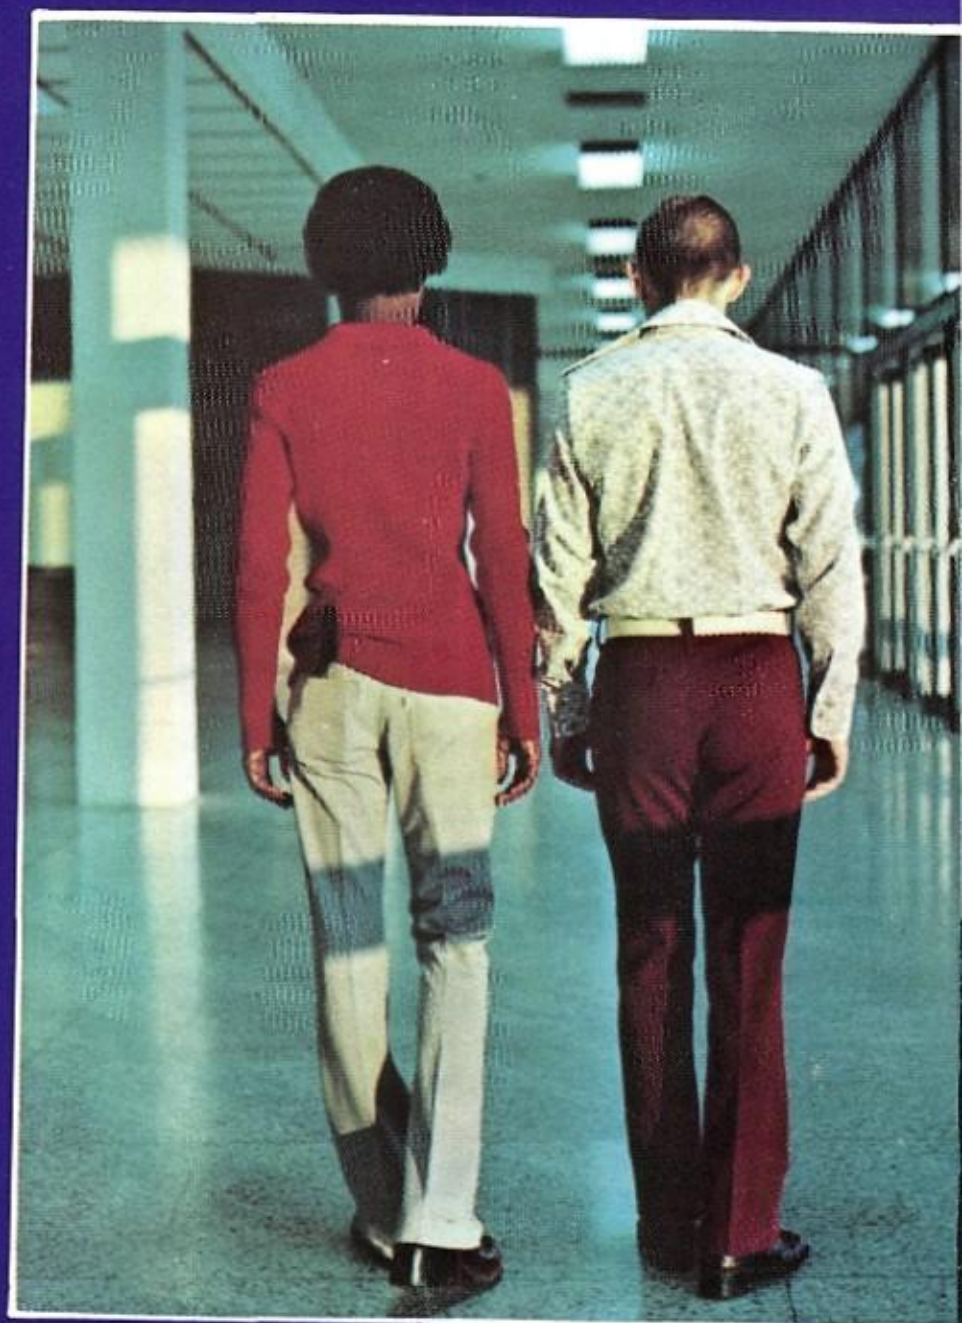

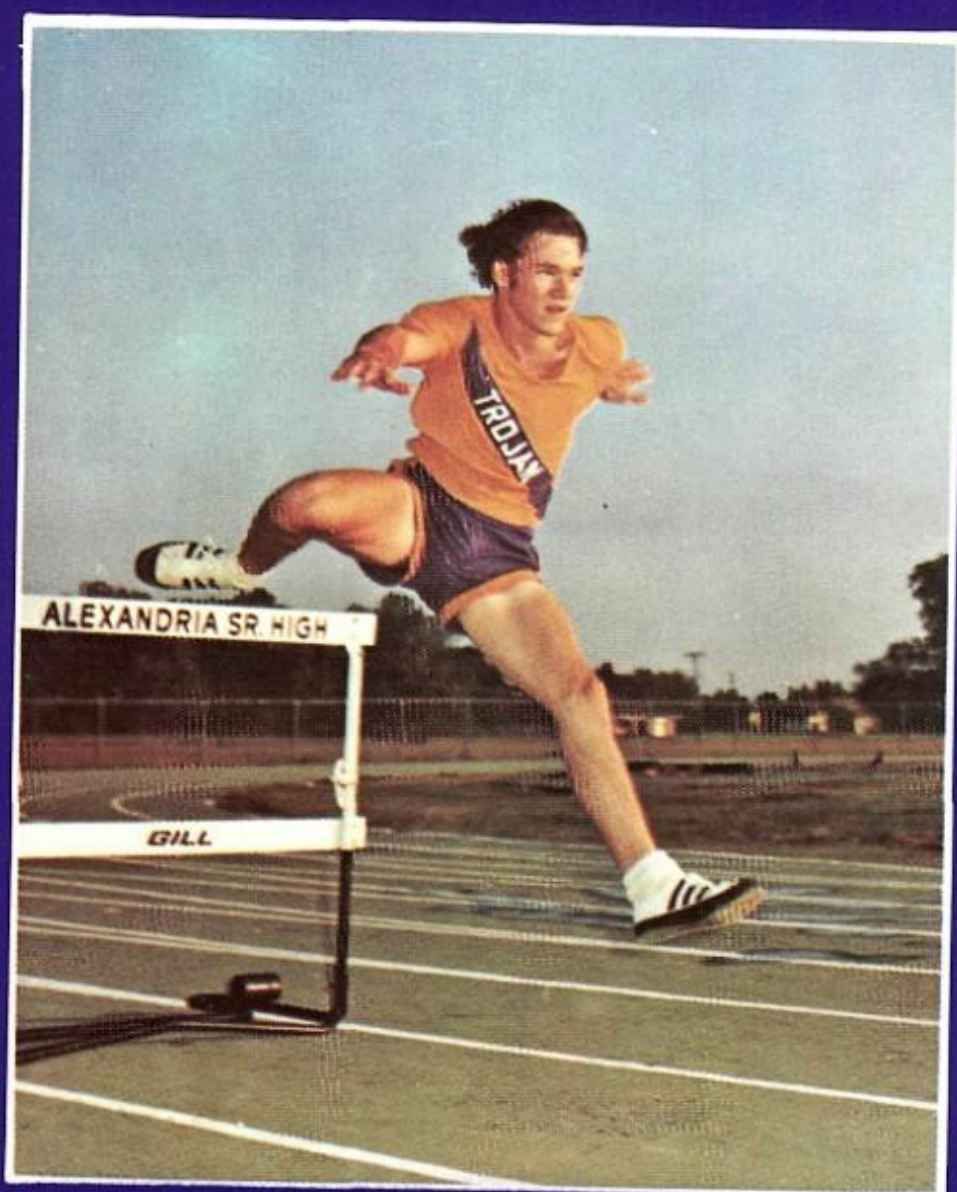

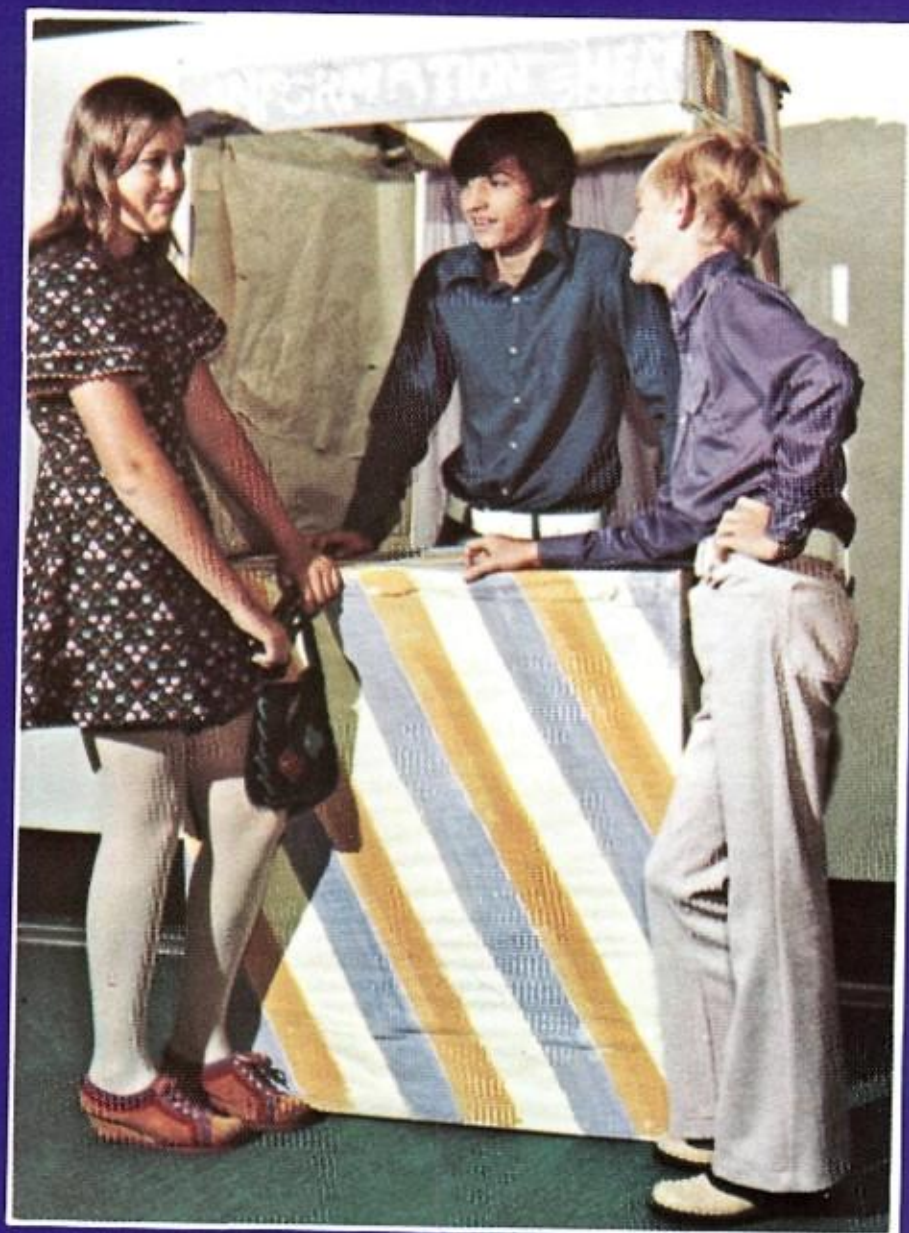

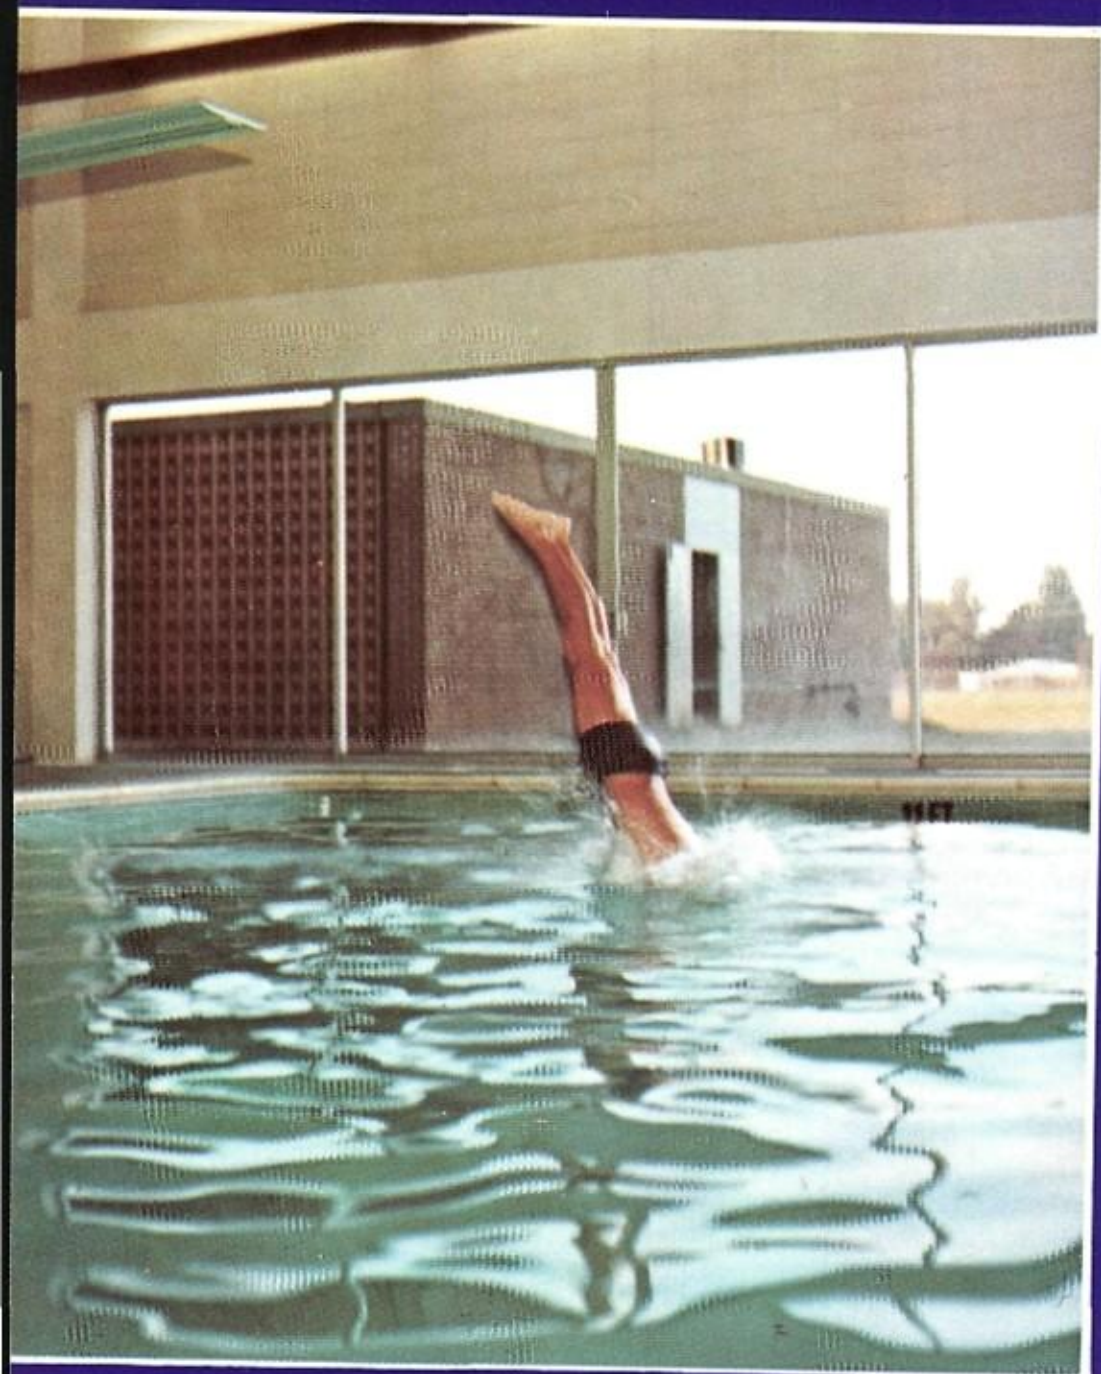

TROJAN happiness is . . .

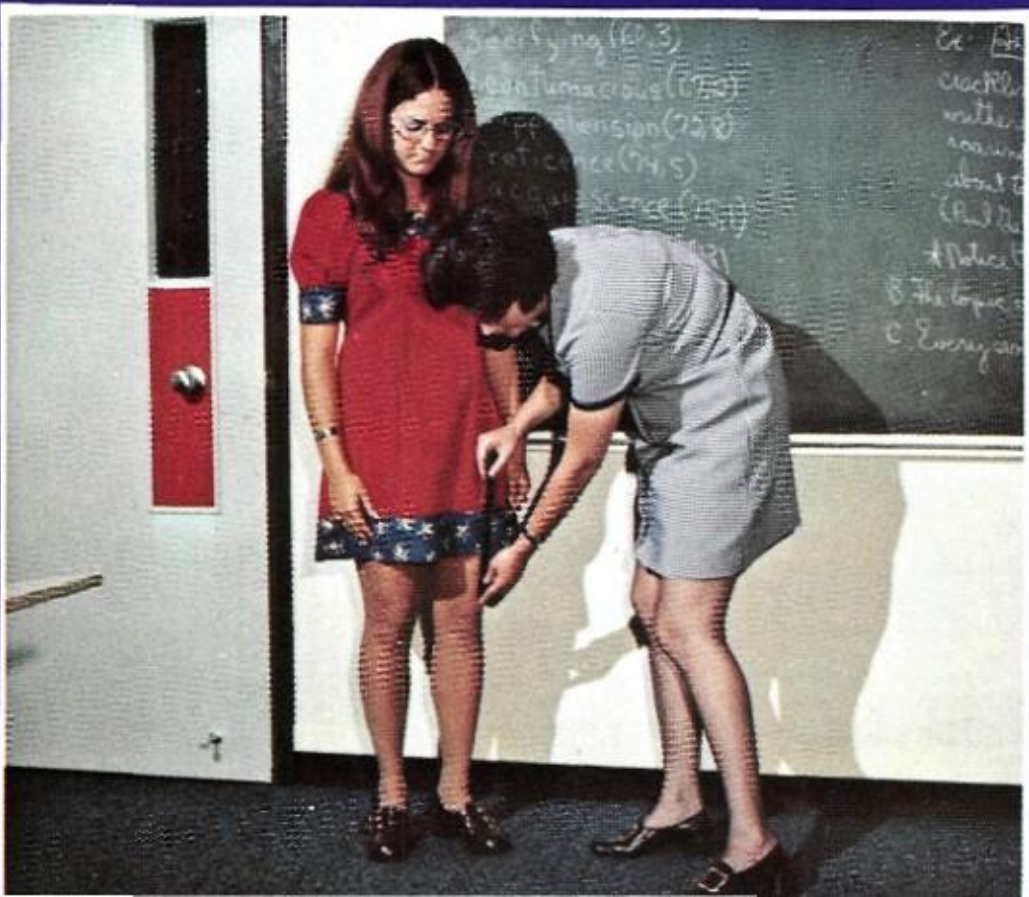

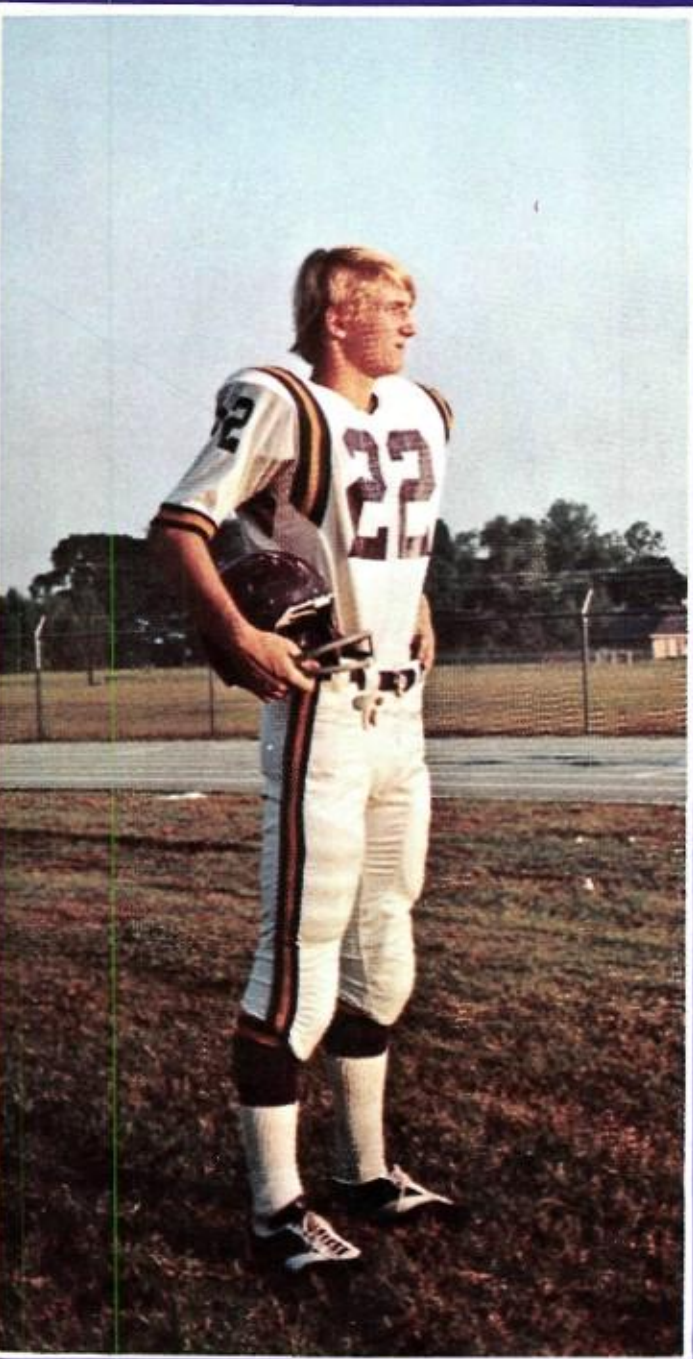

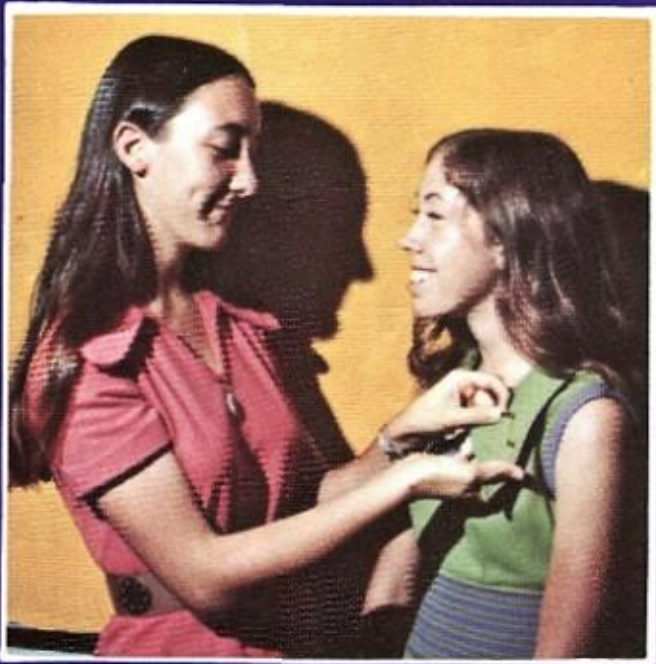

Participation leads to that sense of belonging that creates spirit. We enjoy what we share. "Us" — "We" — "Ours" — TROJANS all. Spirit is what it's all about.

participation

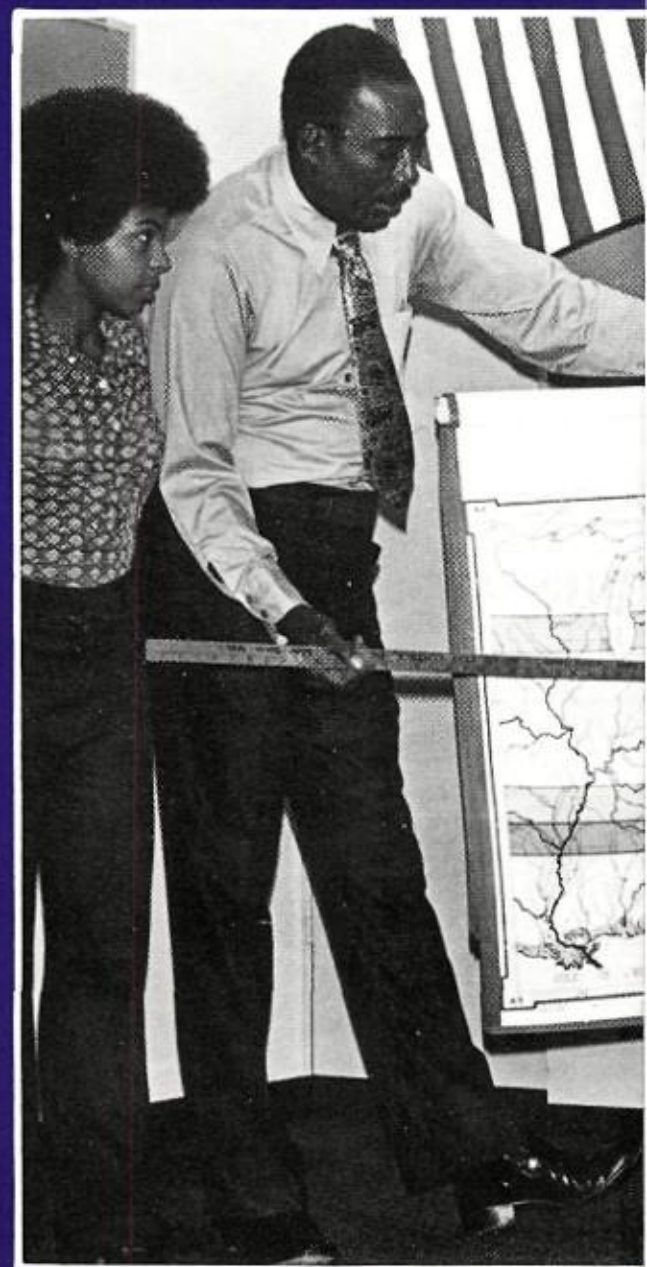

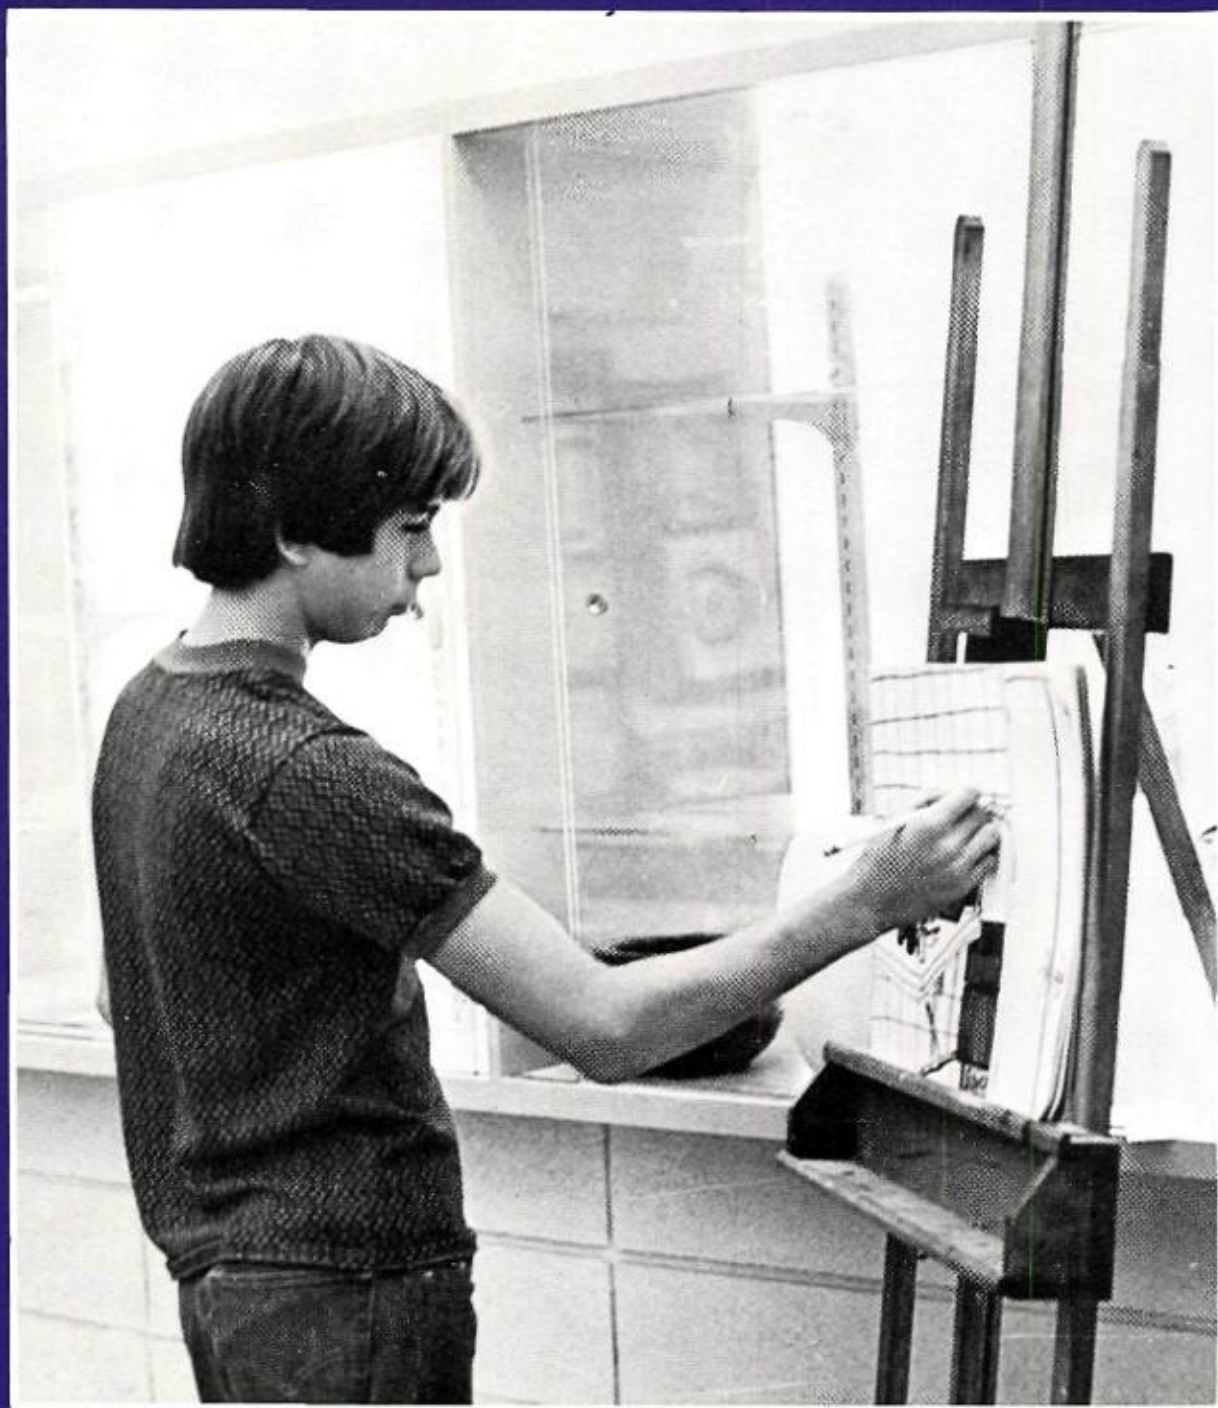

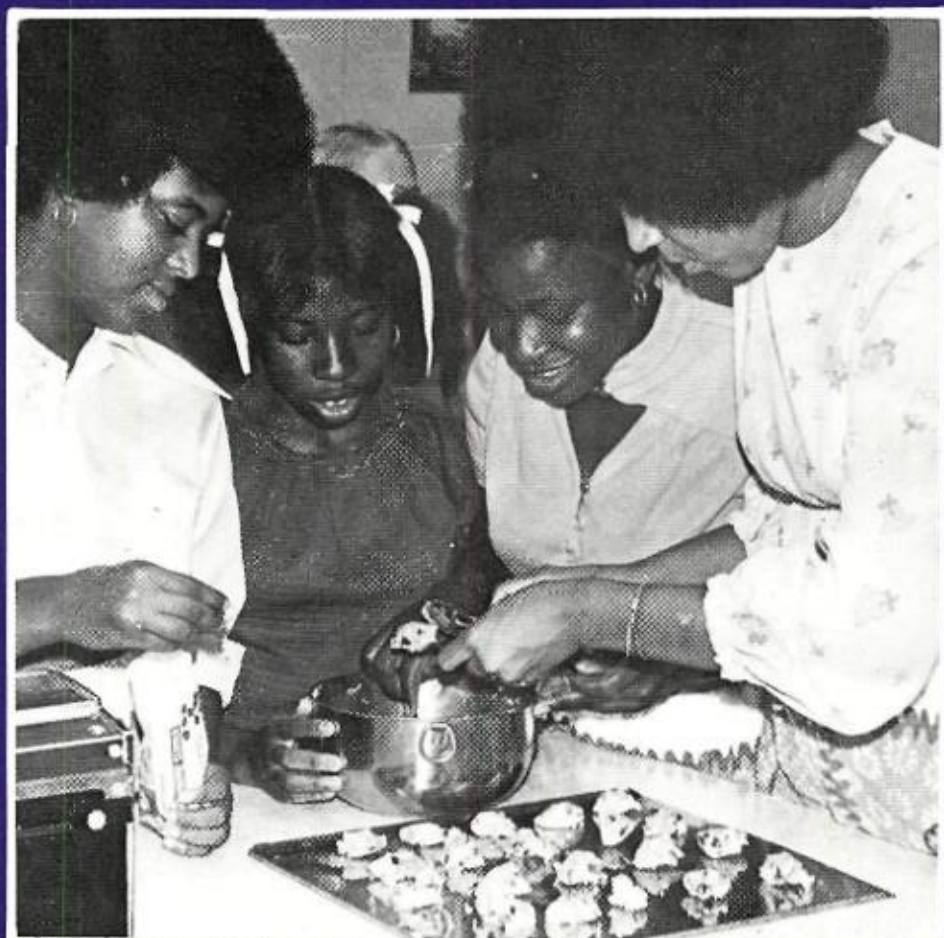

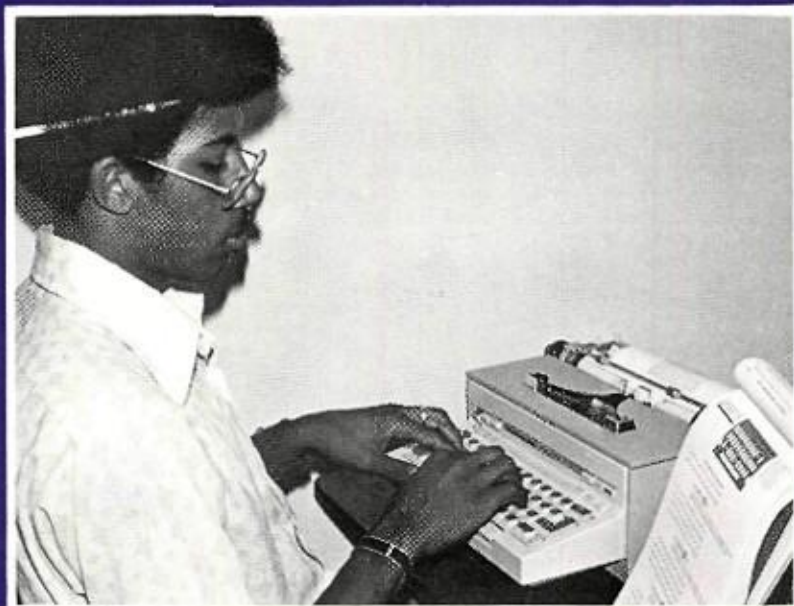

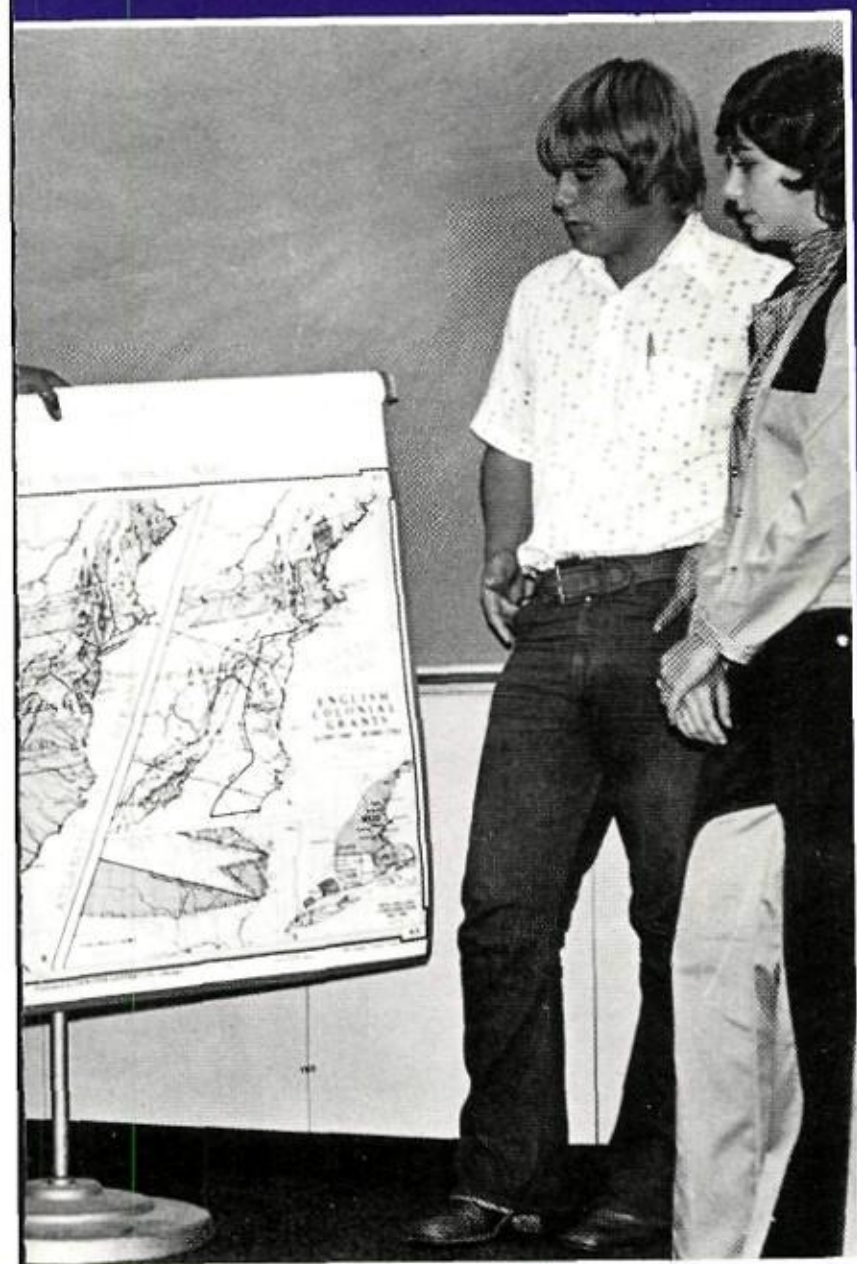

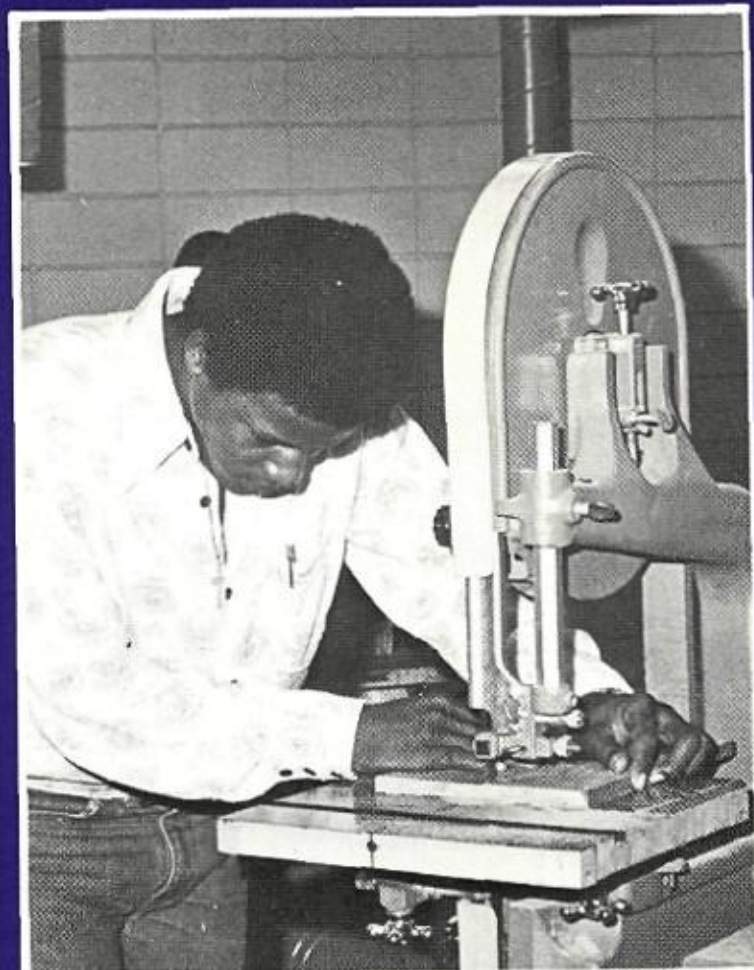

TROJANS . . . ready to learn . . .

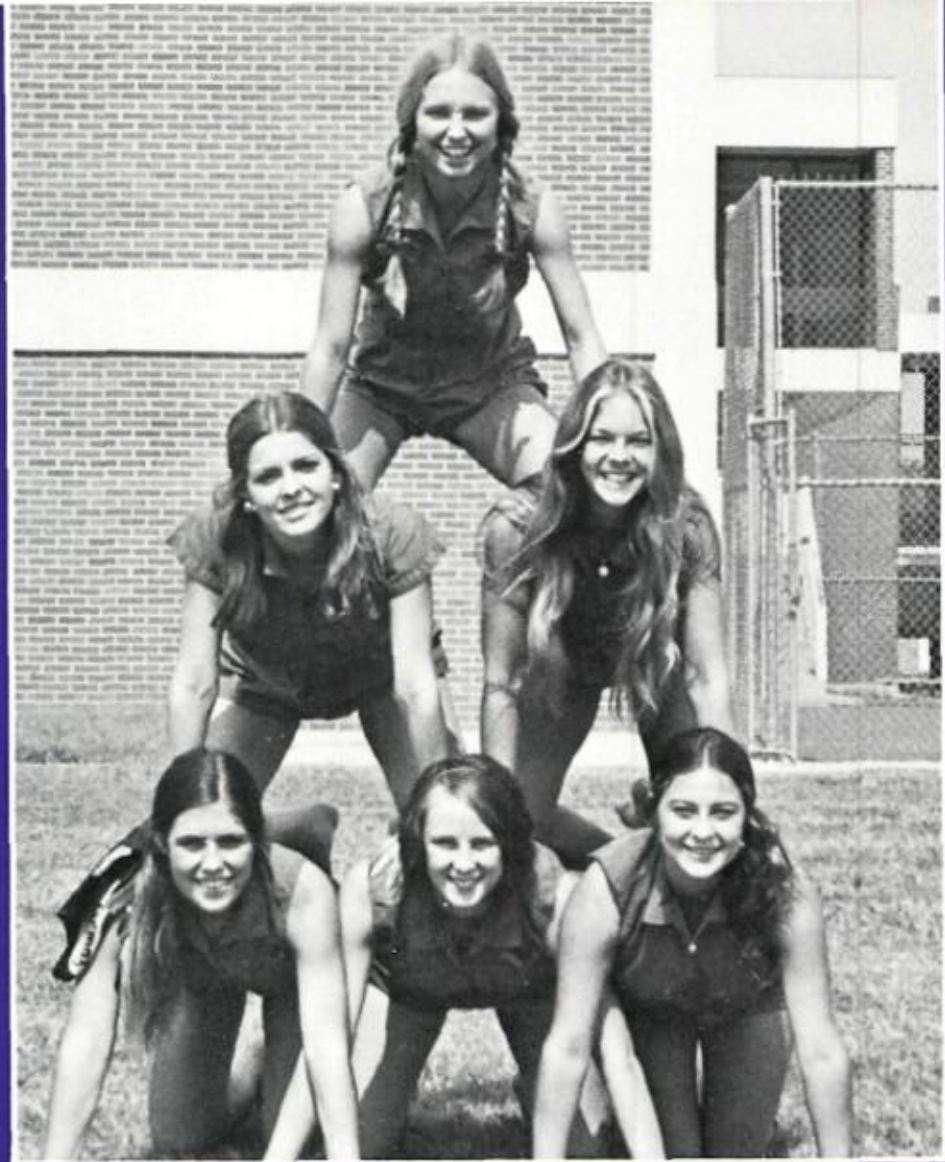

TROJANS know the value of learning. We learn to "love to learn." We realize that the skills we master and the knowledge we gain will serve us well in the future.

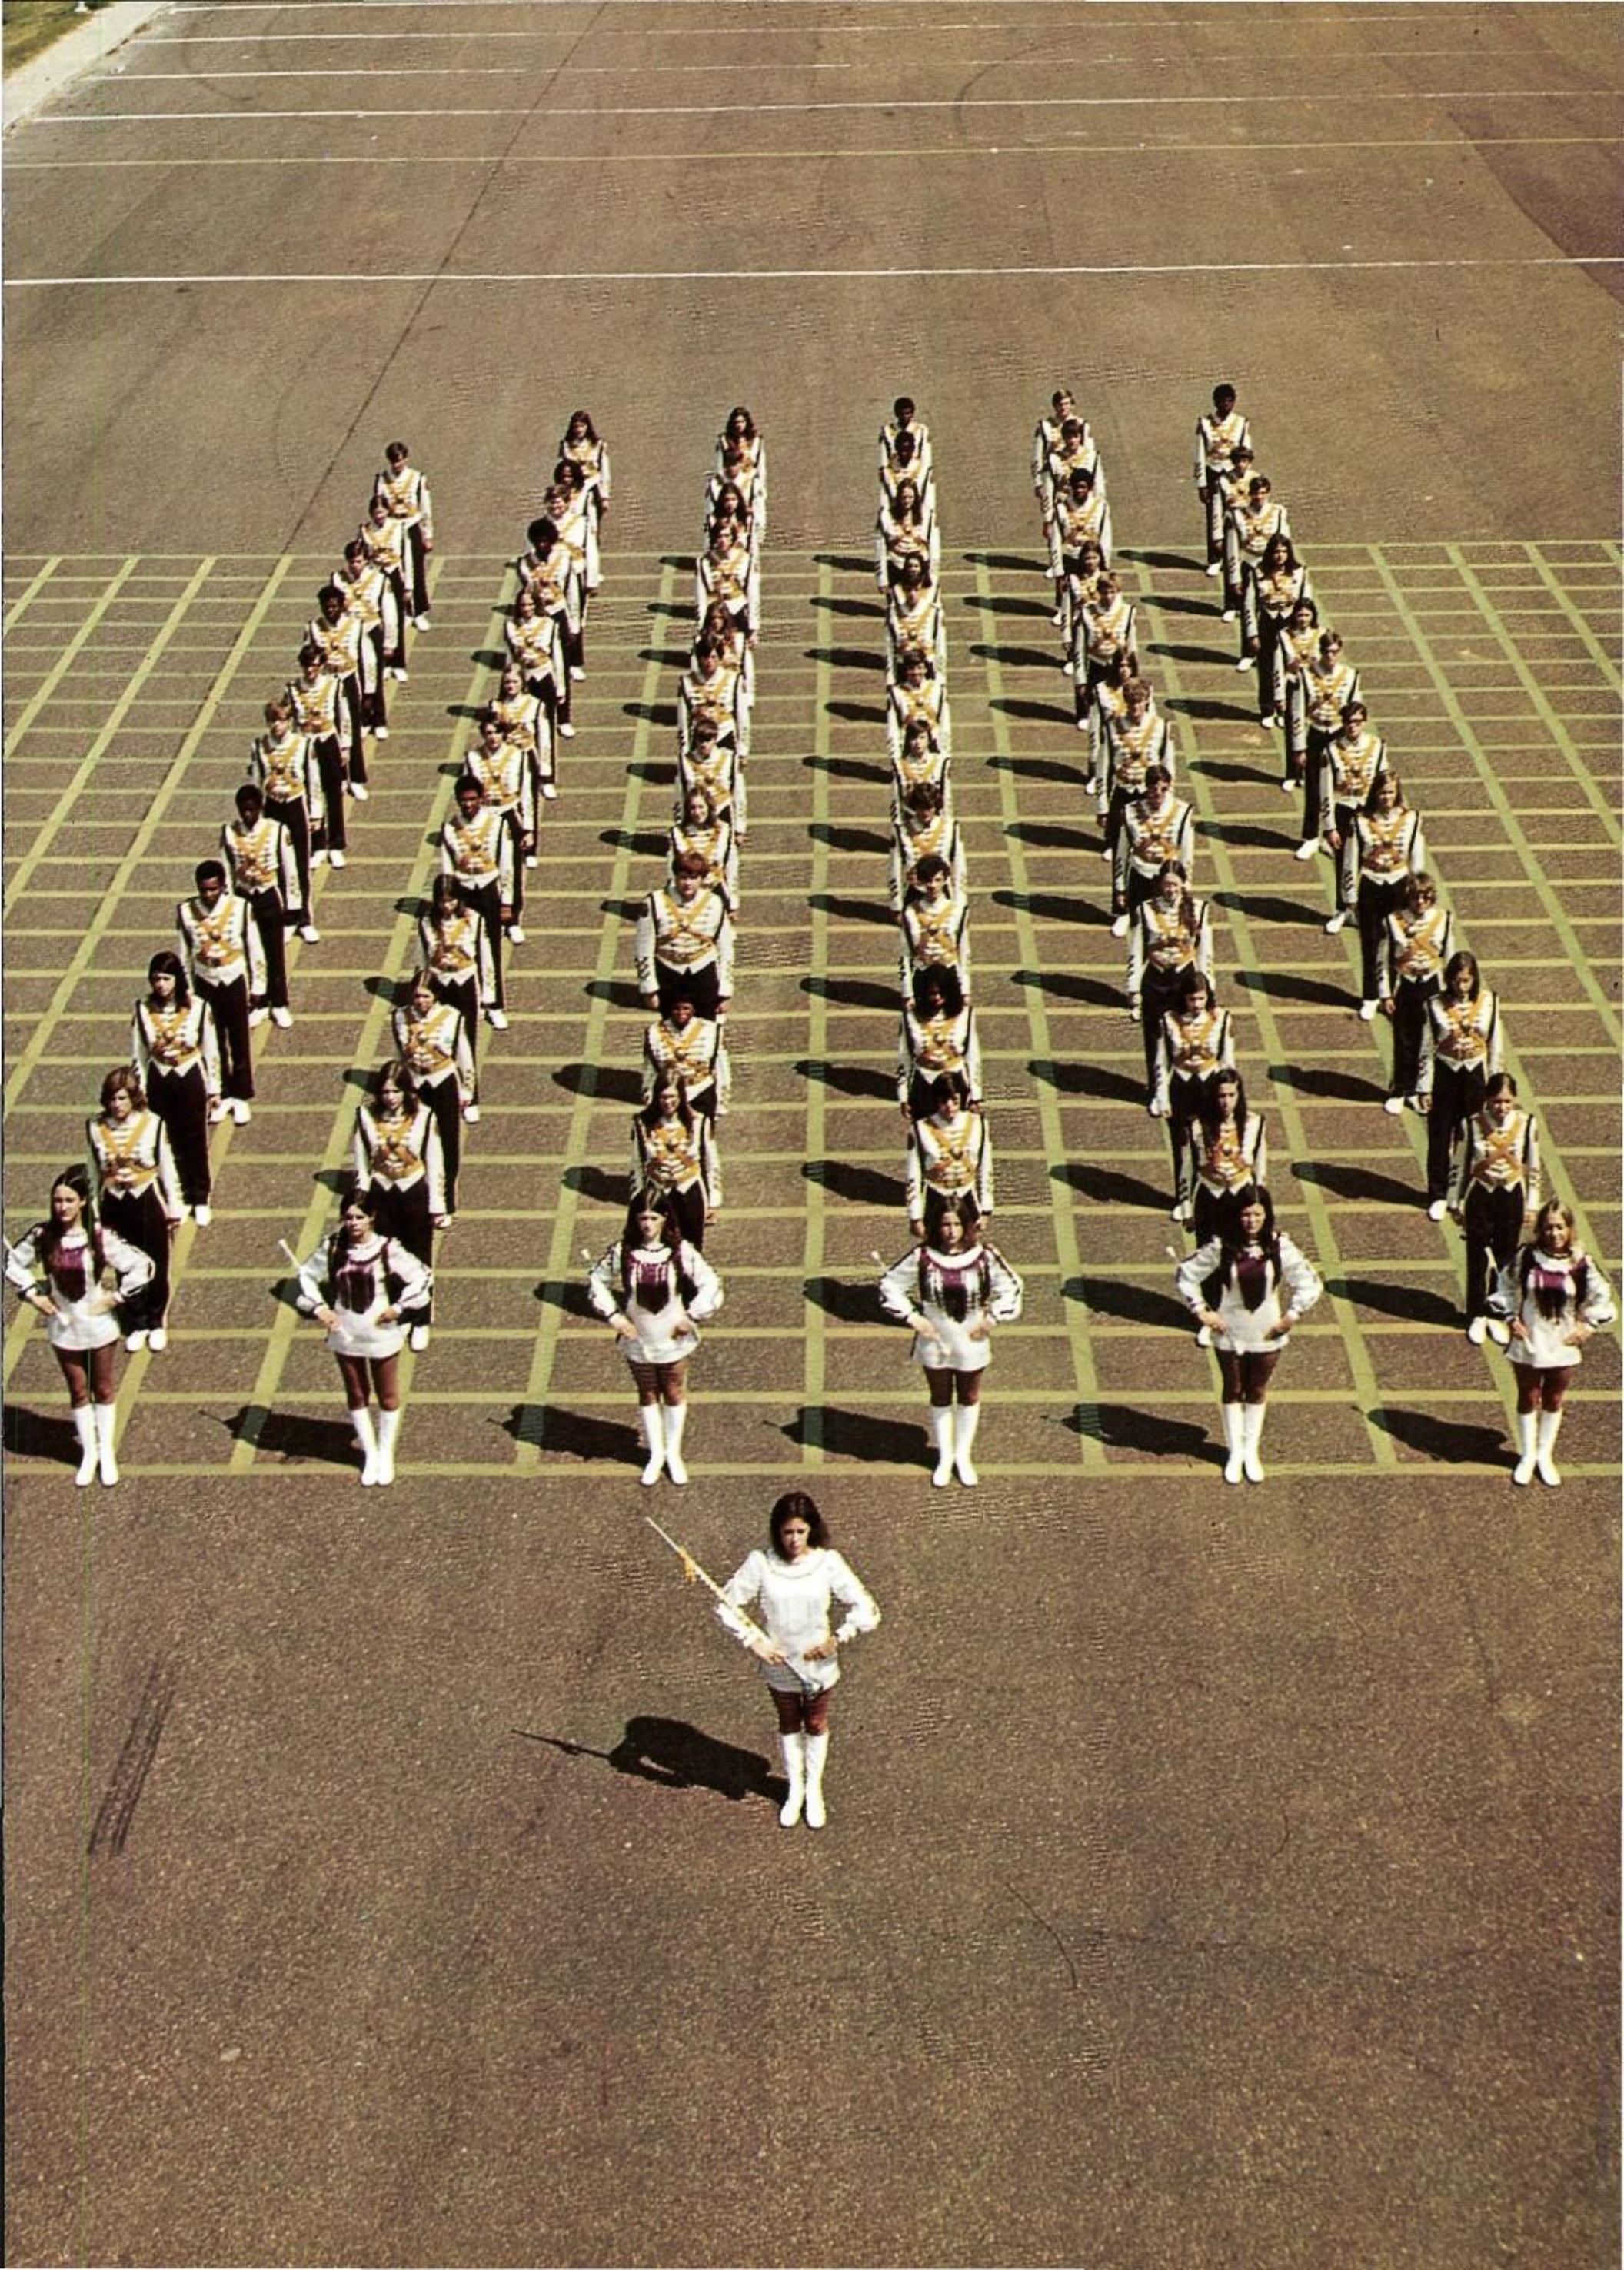

. . . to work . . .

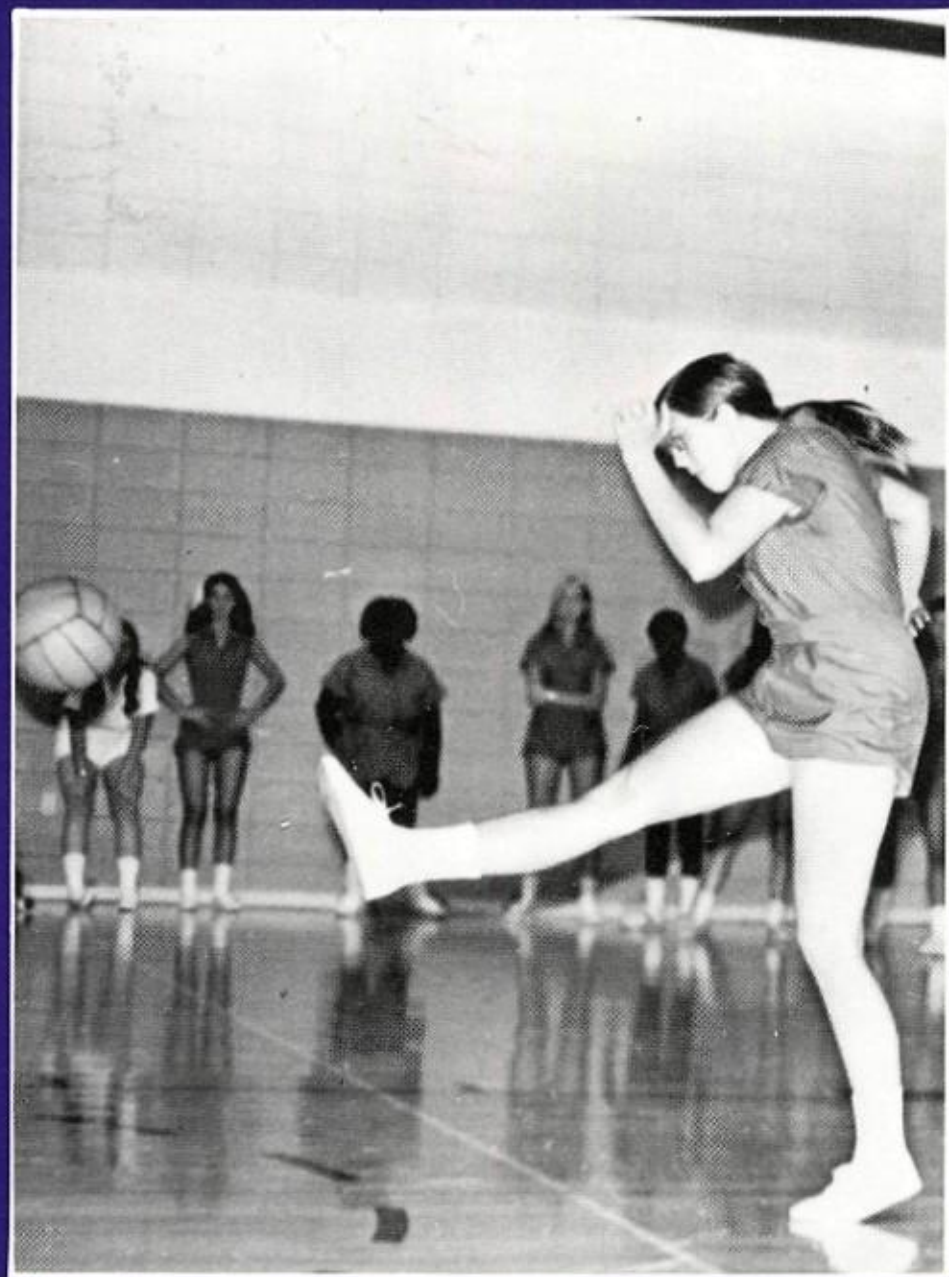

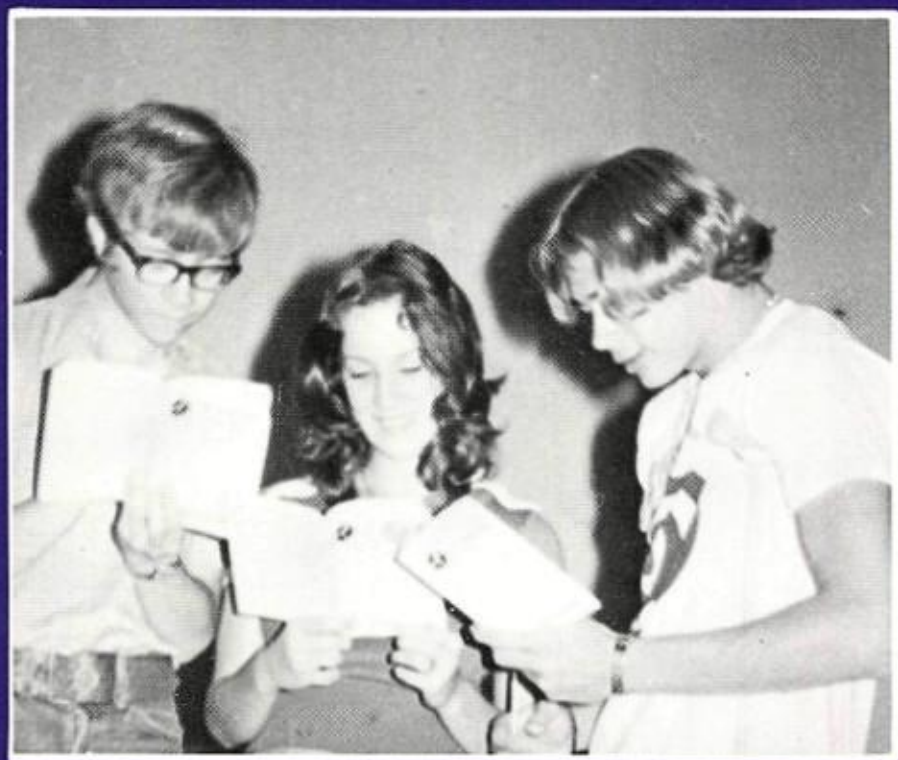

The difficult — TROJANS accomplish immediately. Perfection takes longer! Dedication and many hours of hard work are necessary to attain quality. The willingness to take those extra steps toward perfection marks a TROJAN. All endeavors are approached with this attitude and TROJAN pride results from the realization that one has done his best.

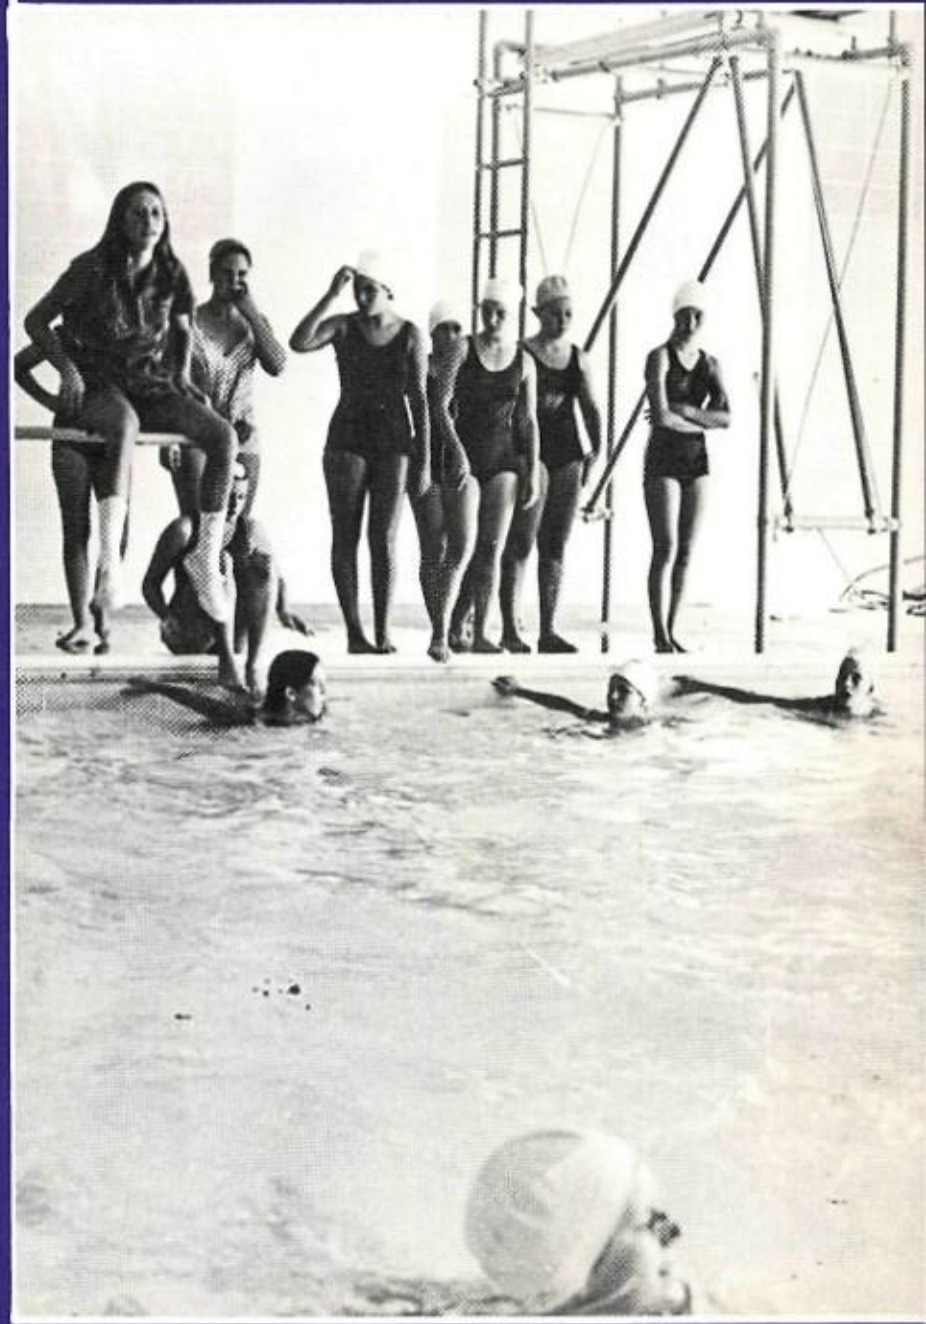

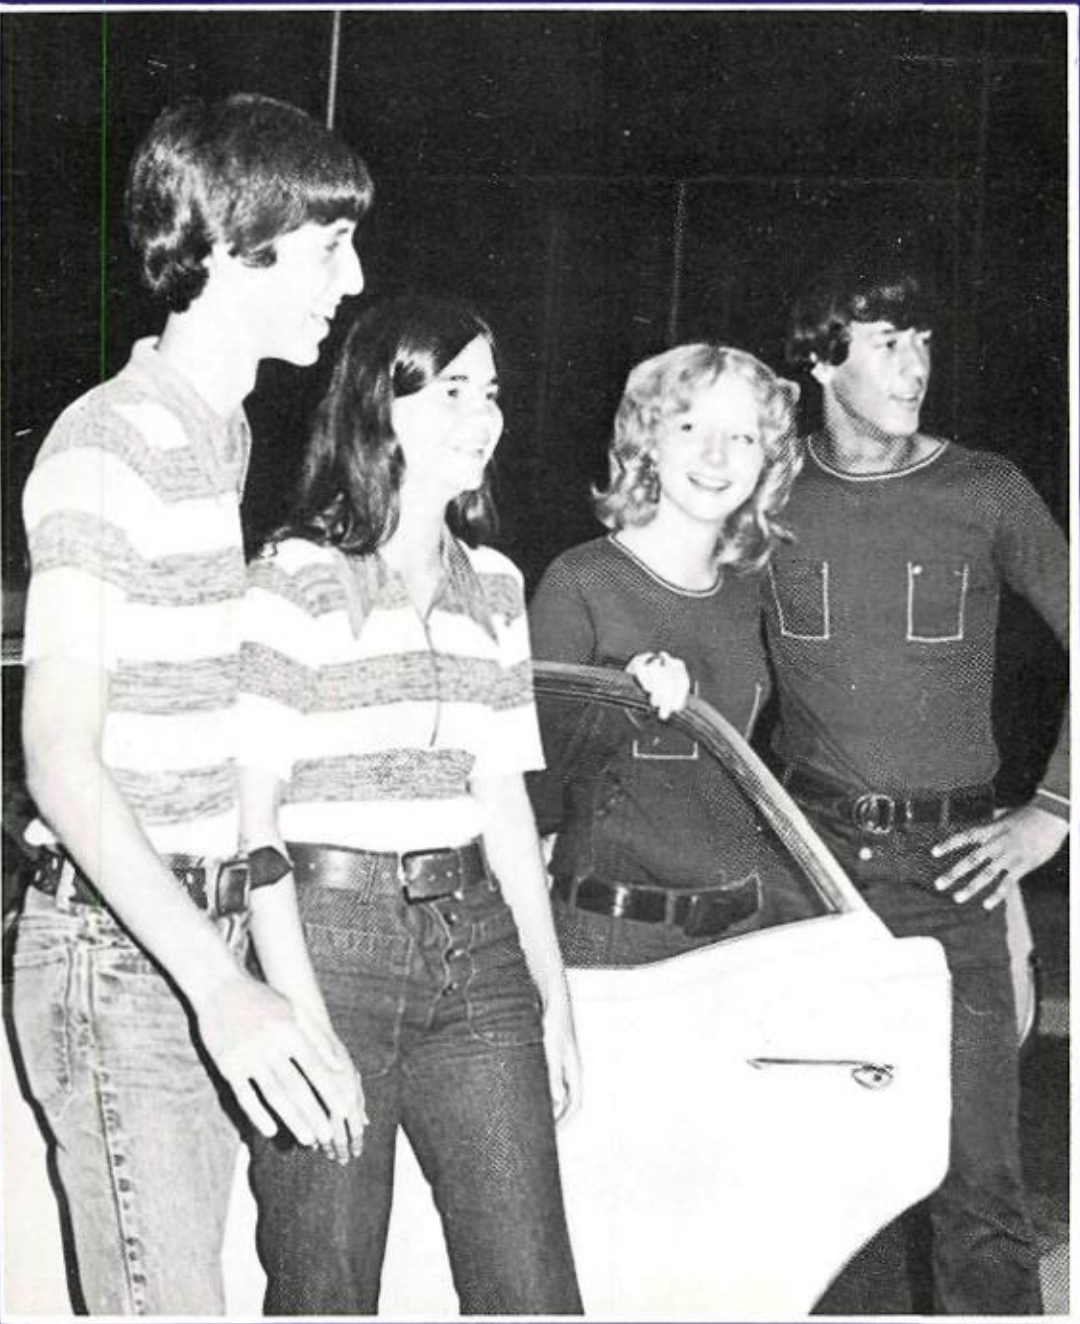

. . . to have fun

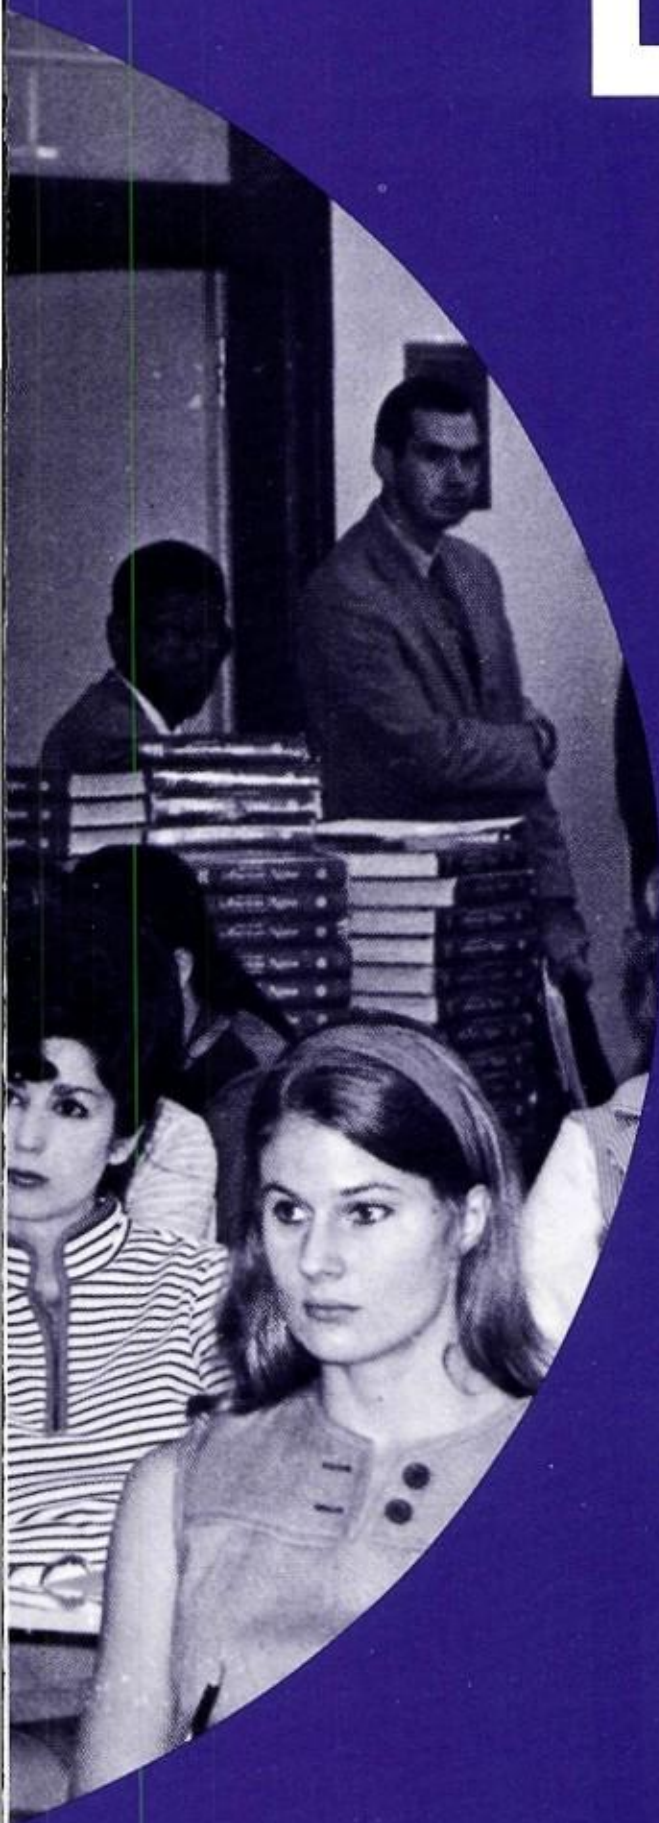

Ease off — relax — take a break. All work and no play make Torchus Trojan a dull boy — or girl. We enjoy a variety of activities which serve to complete the well-rounded TROJAN.

DIRECTORS

The SPOTLIGHT focuses on the Faculty. With skillful dedication, they direct all activities to insure the smooth operation of our school. From the time we enter A.S.H. as freshmen until we graduate as young adults, they strive to guide us and prepare us for the future. We gratefully acknowledge their willingness to assume an awesome responsibility — for the way we live tomorrow is directly influenced by the things we learn today. The A.S.H. Faculty —

Flexible enough to meet all situations
Firm enough to be in command.

ENGLISH

Realizing that an adequate foundation in English is essential if the student is to be successful in his overall program of studies, the English staff stresses those elements that will be of particular benefit. By using selected literature, we encourage the development of comprehension and critical thinking. With oral and written compositions we emphasize the correct, clear, effective expression of ideas. Especially do we strive to help the student realize the important role the English language plays in his life.

LANGUAGE, SPEECH, READING, SPECIAL

The foreign language program in our school includes both classical and modern languages. A study of another language involves a gradual expanding knowledge of a foreign country — its geography, history, social organization, literature, and culture — which results in a better perspective on American culture through an adjustment to the concept of cultural similarities and differences. Though language skills may later be forgotten; the enlarging and enriching results of the cultural experience endure throughout life.

EDUCATION

Miss Reighney utilizes the language lab in teaching Spanish.

Alexandria Senior High offers a three year speech curriculum. Students are stimulated to participate in society through a mastery of the oral skills. Both the Debate Club and the Thespian troupe offer students extracurricular activity in the art of speaking. Our department attempts to develop in each student an ability to intelligently express his views. Special efforts are made to insure that speech skills can be extended into other academic pursuits.

Donald J. Amillini

The Reading Department strives to meet the needs of students emphasizing reading and study skills. In its individualized program, students receive concentrated instruction to overcome certain language deficiencies. Additional tutoring is provided in the areas of grammar, literature, and composition, so as to establish the necessary background for further progress.

Lorena B. LyMBERIS

Special Education is a new class designed to accommodate the needs of special students. Basic academic skills are taught against a background of problems encountered in real life situations. We strive to prepare each student to assume his place in our society.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

In every generation, Americans have encountered and solved problems besetting the nation. Today, Americans must contend with both domestic and foreign problems of great urgency. We can gain perspective and guidance for this task through an understanding of our past and our national heritage. The Social Science Department at Alexandria Senior High School is designed to enrich the subject matter and seeks to present fairly, differing points of view.

Because, in the Mathematics Department, we wish to enrich all students who come under our guidance, we strive for a flexible program that will meet the needs of the students for the world of today and tomorrow. Thus, we feel that our curriculum must consist of those courses and activities designed to contribute to both the common and special mathematical needs of all students so that a student, if he so desires, will be prepared to pursue a career dependent upon mathematical skills and abilities.

SCIENCE

The teachers of the Science Department are united as we work to reach the major goals outlined for this year. It is imperative to make science relative to daily living as well as to guide students in developing the ability to think critically and use the scientific method effectively. Specifically, the Science Department hopes to acquaint the student with different scientific occupations and to diligently prepare students who wish to pursue a career in Chemistry, Biology, or Physics.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The primary objective of the Business Education Department is to instill within the student the desire to learn the skills necessary to fulfill the demands of the world of work. Efforts are made to give individual training to each student so that he may leave A.S.H. with a saleable skill or continue his studies of business. We feel that our department is commendable since we offer a wide range of subjects, the facilities are excellent, and the staff is cooperative and well trained.

ARTS, HOME ECONOMICS, MUSIC

Home Economics, Industrial Arts, Drafting, and Art all play a key role in a person's way of life since they are subjects which are not only useful but interesting and enjoyable. It is the duty of our departments to provide a pleasing and practical experience for all young people involved in these programs. The success of these courses depends on how well the departmental staff fulfills the intellectual capacities of each individual student. Skills learned in these classes can be utilized beneficially by anyone regardless of the field of work which he chooses to pursue.

Randall Broadnax

In the Music Department we believe that our students should be taught to live, share, and work together. Our department tries to seek out and develop special talents of students and to prepare them for further training in music. The department works to provide opportunities for students to perform in large or small groups and to provide appropriate music to meet the needs of the school and community.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical Education is an integral part of the total educational process. The aim of our program is to provide a variety of activities that will give students a break from academic pressures encountered during the day. At the same time, they are learning activities which they can enjoy participating in all their lives. It pays to play: physically, mentally, socially, and emotionally.

CAST

The SPOTLIGHT plays on the student body — the 1500 individual students who have the power to create the atmosphere they want at A.S.H. What they have wanted this year has been a highly successful combination of the desire to maintain scholastic standings, create spirit and enjoy extra-curricular activities. Spirit in particular has marked our 1973 student body. Together, the four classes have displayed a front of complete "Trojanism." Keen class competition has also marked this year as freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors vied with each other by painting signs, buying spirit links and Epics, and cheering at pep rallies. Under student leadership and teacher sponsorship, TROJANS have eagerly participated in all activities and have brought originality of thought into everything undertaken. The A.S.H. Student Body —

Independent enough to think for themselves
Intelligent enough to listen to others.

They're our pride —

and joy itself.

Meeting life head on —

with boundless enthusiasm.

They can be doctor, lawyer

— even president.

They know they can be anything

— or everything.

They are all.

HEADLINERS

The SPOTLIGHT catches clubs — that integral part of school life that brings together those with mutual interests. Clubs provide opportunities and specific times to get together with congenial friends and enable Alexandria Senior High School to be represented in myriad areas. Thirty-two clubs, ranging from service and sports, through art and music, to academic and drama, illustrate the versatility of A.S.H.'s students. There is "something for everyone," and often friendships that endure for a lifetime are formed. The A.S.H. Club Members —

Fun-Loving enough to enjoy themselves
Dedicated enough to accomplish their purposes.

STUDENT COUNCIL — The first two letters

The most influential student organization here at ASH is the Student Council. It provides for pupil participation in school affairs, promotes school spirit, and serves as the "bridge" between students and faculty. The Student Council sponsored ASH's first victory dance, Spirit Week, and put out the all-important student directory. As in every other year, the 1973 Student Council has done an outstanding job — fulfilling its role of providing a forum for discussion at ASH.

LEO CLUB — Achievement in the area of service

Lift the mane of a Leo and find a very special type of person, one who already understands the need to contribute to the community in which he lives. Underlying the desire to be of service to the students of ASH and the community of Alexandria is the strong-hearted determination of Leos to achieve distinction in this area. This year, Leos assisted their parent club, Lions, in their annual sale of light bulbs to aid Lion's Crippled Children's Camp.

CENTURIONS — Reflecting the past

Formed to enrich its members in the study of ancient literature, the Centurions, or Latin Club, allows students of the language to expand their insight into the Roman culture. Members must be presently taking Latin or must have two previous credits in the language.

SCROLL — TROJAN word for communication

What's new? Who did it? Where did it happen? When? Why? All is answered as ASH's own Scroll goes to press and meets its monthly deadline. Informing the student body keeps a staff on the go along with writing the paper and selling the ads. This year an unexpected change of sponsors found Mrs. Monk busily and capably directing the Scroll staff as it covers the wide range of news that constitutes life at Alexandria Senior High.

KEY CLUB — Leadership and service

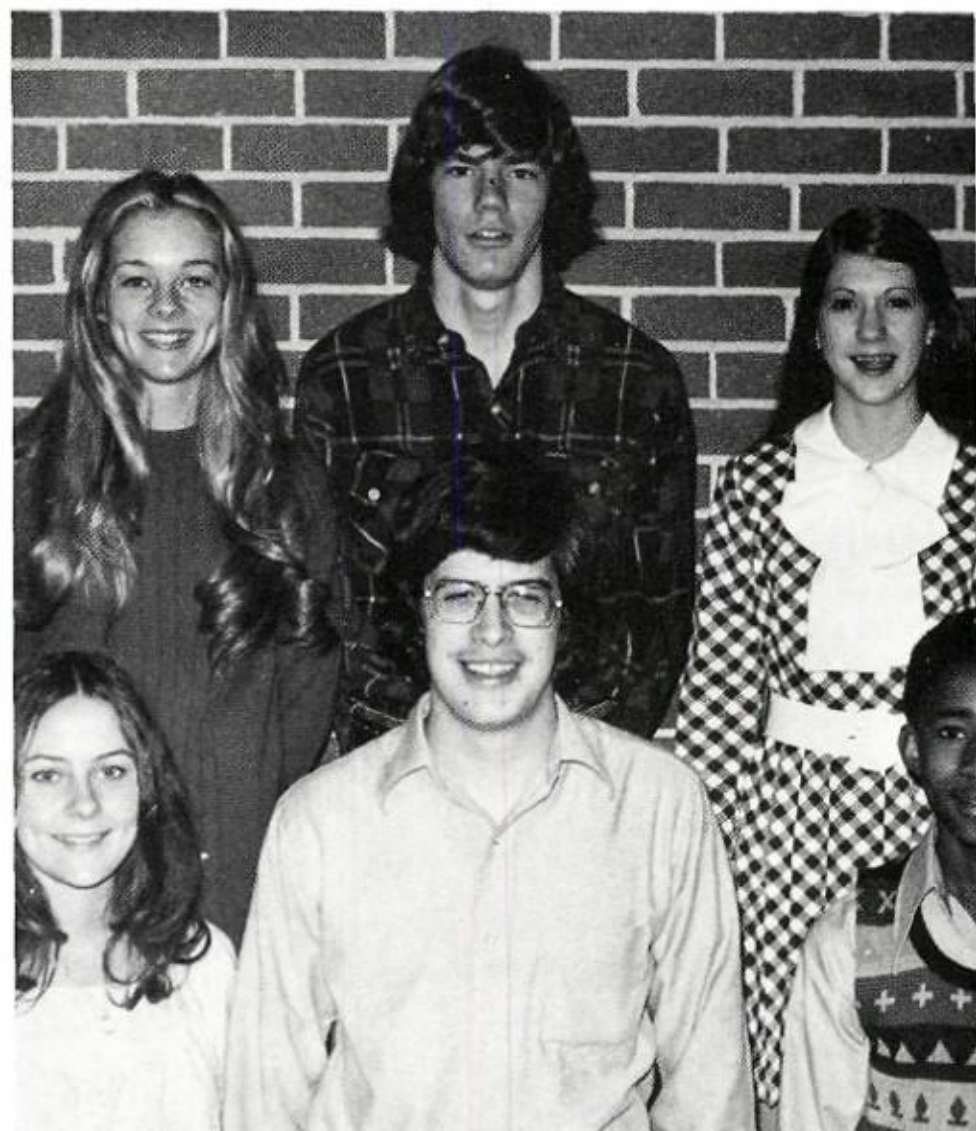

Initiative marks each member of the Key Club as he undertakes service projects for the school and community. In fact, every member must contribute twenty-five hours of work every nine weeks in order to remain in the club. Sponsored by Kiwanis International, the Key Club strives to prepare members for responsible citizenship. Key Club services this year included ushering at football games and entering a float in the homecoming parade. They again presented their annual Key Club Calendar.

CHOIR — Singing at its finest

Alexandria Senior High is fortunate to have a truly fine choral department which is made up of four groups for maximum student participation. Freshman girls' choir consists exclusively of 9th grade girls "in training" for their following years at A.S.H. Girls' Glee Club is made up of 10th, 11th, and 12th grade girls who practice to perform as a completely female singing ensemble. Concert Choir, which is composed of 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade girls and boys, develops a more varied musical program since boys voices are utilized. Alexandrians is the choral group made up of boys and girls who practice chiefly to perform at various functions of the city. This year, the Alexandrians sang on the steps of Convention Hall before the Christmas Parade and appeared on the "Ethma Odum" and "Santa Claus" TV shows. All of the choirs strive to reach that harmonious combination of beautiful voices which will strike a melodious chord in the listener's heart.

FMLA — The treasure of music

Future Music Leaders of America is composed of band and choir students whose interest in music prompts them to meet to discuss upcoming musical performances at school and in the community. Frequently, meetings become a half hour of "student talent" as band and choir members display individual and ensemble abilities. It doesn't matter what the subject is for any particular meeting; music is ever present.

THESPIANS — Drama in the making

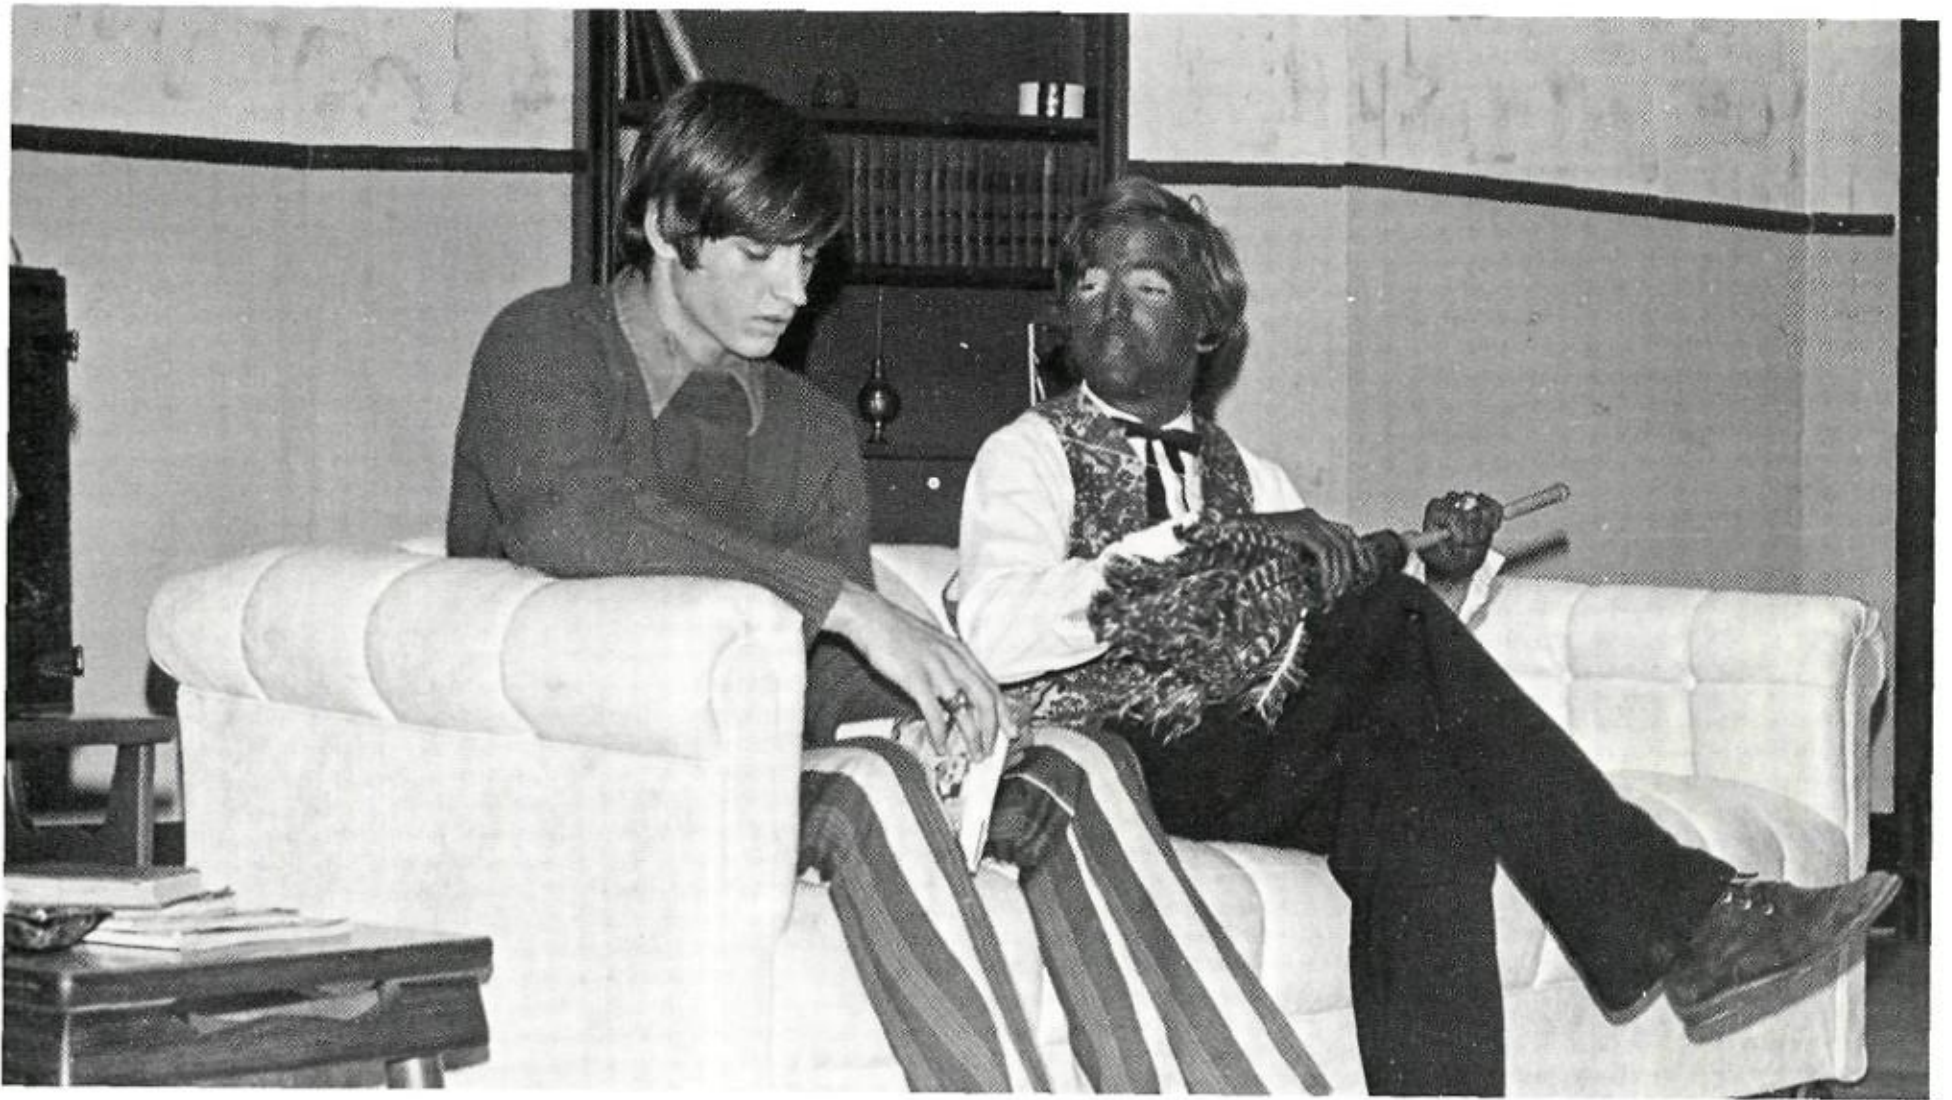

Thespians is an honorary speech organization made up of young actors and actresses-to-be who have earned ten points through 100 hours work in plays, speech tournaments, or in any Thespian-sponsored project. This year Thespians sponsored the newly organized Speech Club and a play, "The Perfect Idiot." They also ran a week long do-nut sale to earn money for the fall production and entered a car in the Homecoming Parade. Many members are anxious to pursue speech and acting at the college level, and the skills acquired through Thespian projects will aid them greatly.

HONOR SOCIETY — "E" is for

The National Honor Society is one of the most important clubs at ASH. To belong to the society is a true honor since members include those who not only have extremely high grade averages but who have served ASH in the "finest fashion." A member of the National Honor Society is more than just a student; he or she is one of those rare individuals who possess the ability to keep grade averages at a superior level, to serve in any way to promote the general welfare of ASH, and to take pride in the fact that they have taken a step off the "beaten path."

ECOLOGY CLUB — "I am a friend of the Earth"

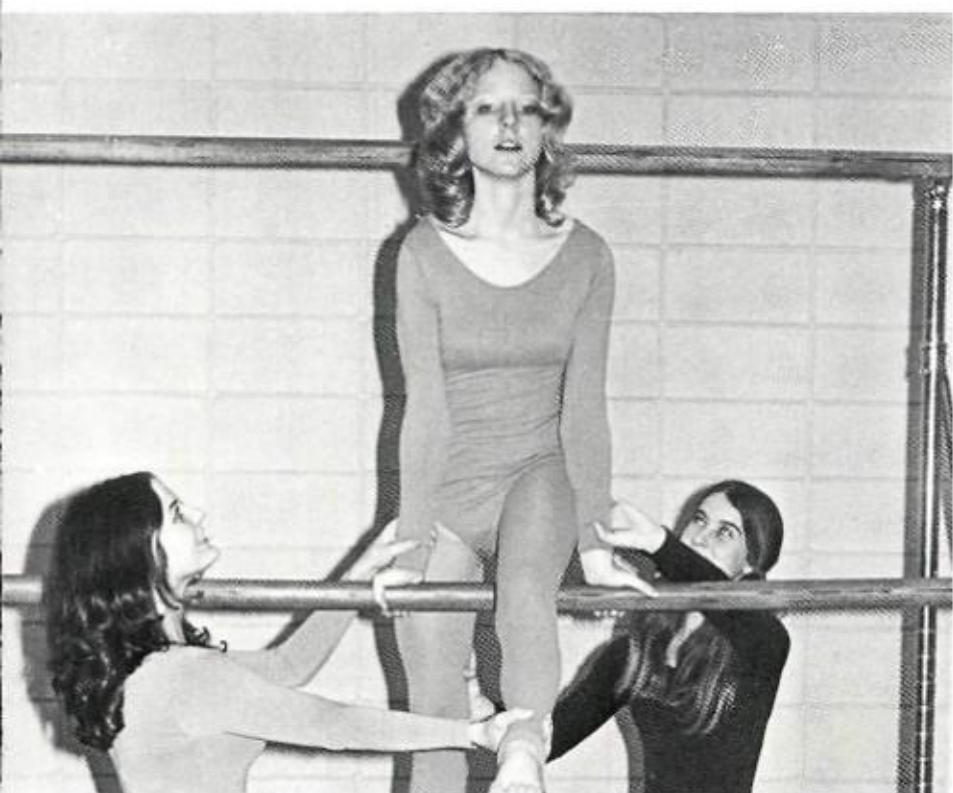

As today's conservationists paint a gloomy picture of the Earth's ecological system, a group here at ASH is working to fight the effect of man's careless pollution. All Ecology Club members are enthusiastic about their work and what they believe to be a major problem affecting the entire world. After a successful membership drive, the club entered a float in the Homecoming Parade and sponsored a clean-up campaign at ASH. As concerned students, struggling to give Mother Earth a "fighting chance," Ecology Club members fully realize and accept the fact that only through hard work and perseverance can pollution be put to an end.

GYMNASTICS — From practice to perfection

A combination of practice, skill, and determination characterizes each member of ASH's gymnastics team. Each girl spends many hours practicing various moves on the apparatus. Everyone learns from her mistakes and practice continues until the ultimate goal — perfection — is reached.

STUDENT CORPS — Assistance and skill

"O.K., girls let's see if your shoes are marked. Now, Susan, you know your socks should be initialed in blue thread." This could be the statement of any typical student corps worker during a typical gym class. Student Corps workers are upperclassmen who not only help the gym teachers check roll and keep track of grade points, but who also help the class learn new gym skills presented every three weeks. Each girl is carefully screened after filling out an application the previous year. Each student corps worker has ample background in skills taught throughout the year and is capable of explaining anything from the proper way to throw a basketball to how to "spot" on a balance beam. Student Corps workers aid others in an effort to more fully develop their own abilities.

Vive le Français Club

The French Honor Society is composed of foreign language students superior in their study of French, students who bring our French heritage to life through an understanding of another culture. As Mrs. Florence Anastasio, French Club advisor, says, "Many scientific concepts, psychological insights, cultural analyses, and economic writings necessary to our progress as a people and as a society are available only in foreign tongues. Now and in the foreseeable future, our society sorely needs many people who can adequately use a modern foreign language."

The French Honor Society encompasses a wide range of activities, for the members participate in a well-rounded slate of projects. The French Club won 1st prize for the best homecoming float for the 3rd year in a row, made Christmas for the boys at Mizpah Boys Home a little bit happier, and held a beautiful initiation ceremony. The French Honor Society — Tres bon!

FRENCH CLUB float wins 3rd year in a row

Great competition marked the 1972 homecoming float contest. The French Club, having won 1st prize for two consecutive years, was anxious to keep a clean record, while other clubs designed very original floats in an effort to capture the $15 1st prize money. However, the French Club won 1st again for the 3rd consecutive year. The theme of the beautifully decorated French Club float was "Triumph over the Tigers." On the float sat a purple and gold crepe paper "Arc de Triomphe" which looked as though it had been imported straight from France! The Key Club was awarded the 2nd place prize — $10 for their float which capitalized on the idea that the Neville Tigers would "rest in peace," presumably under the tombstone mounted on their float. Third place was won by the Ecology Club. A sign on the float read "Recycle the Tigers." These, and all other floats in the parade, added tremendously to our 1972 homecoming festivities.

LIBRARY — The wonderful world of anywhere

Where can an ASH student go to relax, research, or find release from reality? The library, of course, at the magazine rack, the encyclopedia case, or fiction section — in that order. The students who help keep our library an orderly, efficient resource center are members of the Library Club. They spend hours sorting, shelving, and carding. At the same time, they serve as "substitute librarians" ready to assist at the copy machine and check-out desk. As we take for granted the fact that "Byron" is where "Byron" is supposed to be, so do the library clubbers take seriously their important, time-consuming job.

Y-TEENS — Time devoted to service

A Y-Teen belongs to the worldwide fellowship of girls. They are girls anxious to have a good time while serving others to earn points toward "Club of the Year." Here at ASH the 9th, 10th, and 11th grade each has a separate group of Y-Teens. The girls also meet with other high school clubs to plan city-wide projects. This year the Alexandria-Pineville Y-Teens sponsored their annual "girl-ask-boy" Midwinter Ball and held a Leadership Training Conference in Bunkie.

JR. VOLUNTEERS — Spread sunshine

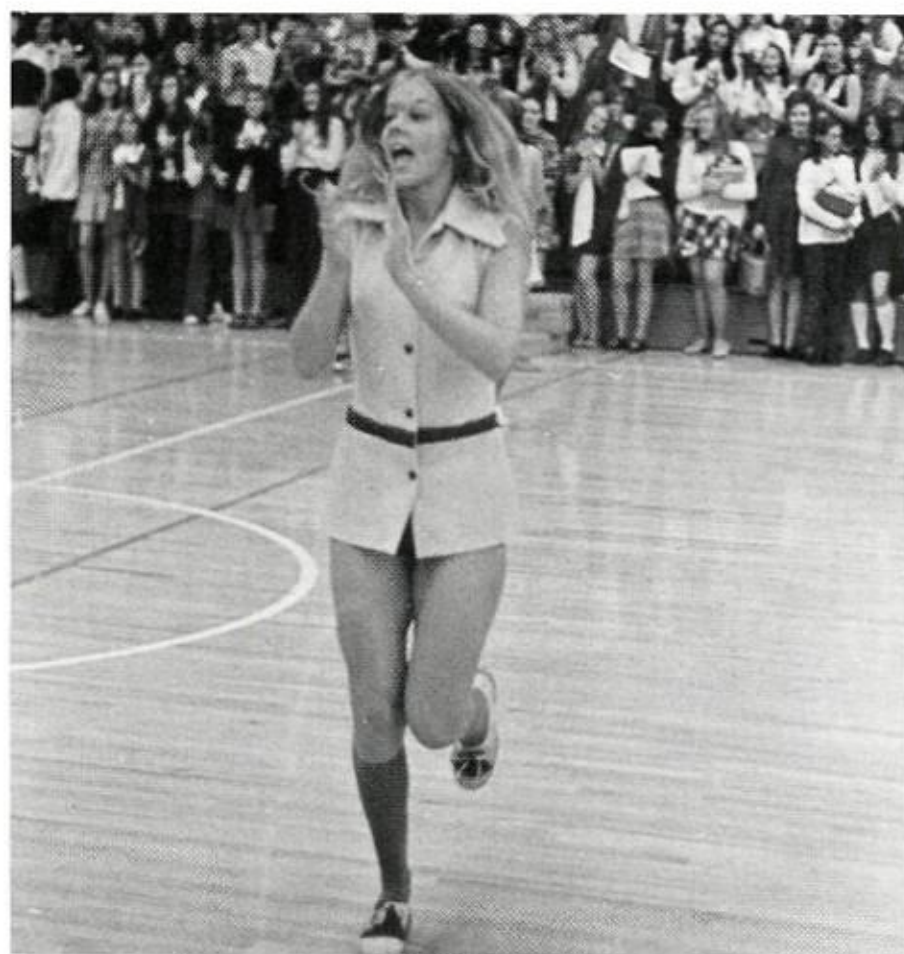

A Jr. Volunteer is many things — a loving and giving person who finds joy for himself in the joy of others; a service-minded student, anxious to help another less fortunate; a person with the wonderful gift of human compassion. Most of all, however, a Jr. Volunteer is a practical worker, willing to spend Saturday afternoon at Tot's House, serving cookies, or wherever he can be of service — spreading sunshine.

CHEERLEADERS — Brisk and bouncy

Six girls elected by popular vote serve as ASH's cheerleaders. To learn new cheers, these girls attended a cheerleading camp during the summer. Aiding the six are four alternate cheerleaders. The six "regulars" cheer at varsity football and basketball games while the alternates attend junior varsity games. At pep rallies, the ten often combine their talents to lead the entire student body to new heights of spirit.

TROYANS — Tops in spirit

The backbone of the "Spirit of '73" can be found in one of ASH's finest organizations, the Trojans. This group is composed of approximately sixty girls who cheer throughout the year at basketball and football games and who perform during halftime shows regularly. This year the Trojans cheered their way through rainy games and freezing cold games, through demerits and pom-pom routines, through victories and defeats. More than that, spirit was kept at a high by the "little things" — bringing goodies to secret football players, decorating the cars in the parking lot with purple and gold streamers, and selling spirit tags and "little football men." The Trojans also sponsored their annual Christmas Dance with the theme "An Old-Fashioned Christmas." In addition to being a money making project, the dance gives parents an opportunity to see their sons and daughters at a school function, thus maintaining good parent-school relations. The Troy Dolls, twelve specially selected girls who compose the Trojan dance line, performed at basketball as well as football games for the first time this year. These girls, chosen by a panel of local dance specialists, attended a dance line camp at Loyola University last summer and were awarded a third place trophy during state competition.

A.S.H. Band to Austria

Last year, an invitation to the 1st International Band Festival, in Vienna, Austria, was extended to the Alexandria Senior High School Band, directed by Jerry Payne. Upon receipt of this honor, the 86 band members and the Band Parents' Club began an intensive effort to raise the money necessary for the trip. They sold pens, greeting cards, spaghetti and gumbo supper tickets, held auctions, rummage sales and worked the concession stand at basketball games. They started a "mile of quarters" campaign, secured financial aid from local merchants, including $5,000 from Governor Edwards, and distributed bumper stickers all over town — and — they raised $78,000!

The band members also practiced while all this was going on. During the month of June, just prior to departure on July 4th, they literally worked night and day to prepare for judging at the band festival where they would be in competition with bands from all over the world.

Their hard work and diligent dedication paid off since they were at their peak upon arrival in Vienna, often called the music capital of the world. Adjudication concerts for all bands were held in the Vienna Konzerthaus, home of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. The A.S.H. Band joined the company of musicians from all over Europe, past and present, in performing on the stage which has been the site of famous musical presentations for decades. Distinguished musicians acting as judges for the event were Dr. William D. Revelli, music director of the International Festival, Albert Ehlermann from Caviers, France, and Professor Leo Ertl of Salzburg, Austria. These judges rated the A.S.H. Band "superior" in the concert competition — truly a great achievement for both the band and Mr. Payne. Judges for the marching presentation were Robert F. O'Brien, director of bands at the University of Notre Dame, and Major Harold C. Johnson, director of the United States Air Force Bands in Wiesbaden, Germany. Again our band was given a "superior" rating — this time because of their fantastic marching technique.

Before and after the week of competition in Vienna, the band toured throughout Europe giving concerts. Requests from various cities for A.S.H. Band appearances were seemingly endless. While in Amsterdam, they were requested to march in the parade at the 1972 Gorinchem International Music Festival. The band strutted proudly down the narrow brick streets which were lined with large crowds. The jazz band also presented a special request open air concert in the Amsterdam Park where the people of Amsterdam demonstrated their appreciation by frequently breaking into spontaneous applause. Innsbruck, Austria brought a concert by the band on a scenic hilltop. In Mariazell, Austria, the jazz band performed for a capacity crowd. In Feldkirch, Austria, the concert band received THREE encores after a particularly fine presentation. In Vienna, our band was one of only four bands participating in the Festival asked to do a special radio show which was broadcast throughout Austria.

All members of the band found plenty of time to enjoy themselves. New foods, new friends, and new customs made the three week trip an unforgettable experience — one that will be treasured forever. Ask an A.S.H. Band member what made an impression on him and you will receive a variety of answers — FOOD — ice cream, "huhn" (chicken), goulash, potato soup! — BEAUTY — mountains, waterfalls, windmills! — PEOPLE — wonderful tour guides, fabulous bus drivers, house mothers in Innsbruck! — MUSIC — that of other bands, and the music of over thirty bands playing together after only one hour of practice, Dr. Revelli! — SOUVENIRS — postcards, watches, cuckoo clocks! — FOREIGN MONEY — Francs, shillings, groeschen! — SWITZERLAND — snow, cable cars, staying at a ski resort!

The A.S.H. Band had the wonderful opportunity of observing an entirely different way of life. They were exposed to new and different customs and met friendly, helpful people wherever they went. If a search through language books failed to yield an appropriate conversational phrase — they found that a smile was very helpful. Especially, the A.S.H. Band bridged the language gap with their beautiful music. It became most evident that music can play a large role in understanding and improving relations between young people of all countries. Hats off to the A.S.H. Band — eighty-six talented young students and the man who worked with them all the way — Mr. Jerry Payne.

PERFORMERS

The SPOTLIGHT zeroes in on Sports and those Trojans who exemplify spirit and tradition. They are those athletes with tremendous individual talent who have the willingness and determination to work together to achieve the teamwork necessary for winning contests. They seemingly never give up. In the process, they develop characteristics of good sportsmanship and physical fitness which form the basis for the phrase "a sound mind in a sound body." The A.S.H. Athletes —

Confident enough to expect to win
Capable of accepting defeat should it come.

Trojan Football

Offense with a capital "O" was the by-word of the 1972 Trojans of Coach Butch Crenshaw. With their newly installed wish-bone-T, the high scoring Trojans led District 2-AAAA in rushing and total offense and ranked among the state leaders in yardage gained.

Downing Pineville, Menard, and tying Bolton established the young Trojans as the team of the future in Central Louisiana. The Men of Troy return fourteen of twenty-six performers, which brightens the '73 picture considerably.

Seniors Danny Cheney and David Cruz provided most of the infantry yardage for the Trojans; while junior QB Bobby Moreau kicked in 1230 yards total offense. Seniors Thomas Norman, Jerry Beard, and junior Johnny Carnes anchored the offensive line. Though beset by defensive problems late in the campaign, the Trojans reaped top defensive efforts from Tommy Adams, Larry Antee, Charlie Hickman, Mike McGaugh, Terry Moreau, and Steve Lionberger.

Two Trojan seniors, Danny Cheney and Tommy Adams were rewarded for their '72 heroics by being named to the 2-AAAA All District Team. Johnny Carnes, David Cruz, Terry Moreau, Bobby Moreau, and Thomas Norman all received second team berths on the mythical squad.

Trojan Basketball

A proper attitude has always been one of the greatest factors in success. We are very proud of the unselfish attitude that our 1973 basketball team has demonstrated. Their hustle and sense of pride have enabled us to compete in a manner in which we can be proud. We believe that this attitude will continue and be a tradition.

We are grateful for players like Ed Jones, Joe Gaston, Charles Liming, Aubrey Bolen, Joe Nardini and Ronald Leary whose leadership has been so valuable. We wish them good luck and success upon their graduation this spring.

The future of the A.S.H. Trojans looks bright as we anticipate the return of Ray Quinney, Kevin Shackleford, Ray Bowman, Wally Morris, John Francis, David Maltempi, Ezra Jones, Bernard Reed, George Lyons, Bill Dearman, Ken Janette and Timmy Powell.

Thinclads yield winning dividends

This year, for the first time, the Epic has made an effort to give our track team the emphasis it deserves. A.S.H.'s track team and cross-country members have proved themselves a group of fine and capable athletes who are devoted to the "cause." Regional and statewide recognition has been received by the trackmen from 1970-1973. In 1970, its first year, the team got off to a great start by taking third in District. 1971 and 1972 produced the title of District Runners-up as well as several championship trophies in other meets. This year, the team carried on its winning tradition and soared to new heights with a particularly outstanding honor, as 1973 brought our cross-country to success unequalled in preceding years when they were recognized as 2nd in State. Honors such as these are achieved only through a tremendous amount of hard work and diligence. On almost any given day track members can be seen running and working out on our fine grasstex track. Thus it is easy to see why our trophy case continues to be filled with track and cross-country trophies.

LEADS

The SPOTLIGHT glows on Features and those students who play leading roles in our school life. Actually, this encompasses each and every student at A.S.H., for to quote Nathaniel Hawthorne, "Every individual has a place to fill in the world, and is important, in some respect, whether he chooses to be or not." However, there are always those with outstanding ability and charm who choose to use their abilities and personalities to further themselves in one area or another. They have a warmth which draws a response from all with whom they come in contact. These achieve positions of honor.
The A.S.H. Leads —

Persevering enough to develop potential.

Pat-on-the-Back Recipients

Winners Commended, Awarded, Encouraged

"Pat-on-the-Back Recipients" are two students whom the entire A.S.H. faculty considers to be the most deserving of praise, recognition, and support. Their qualities and personalities represent the epitome of true American youth. They possess skill, leadership, a desire to serve their school and community, and a basic respect for today's society which commands respect from others.

Remarkably enough they are the students who least need encouragement or an imaginary "pat on the back," for they have discovered and accepted for themselves what is important and therefore deserve to "pat themselves on the back." Congratulations to a pair of industrious Trojans.

Who's Who

Who's Who members are just that — "students who" are known for their contributions of energies and abilities to A.S.H. The A.S.H. faculty is afforded the opportunity to bestow this honor on five girls and five boys. Votes are tallied and the ten seniors who receive the most votes become the representatives of the traditional and respected Who's Who.

David Coatney has been a member of the Track Team for four years and Cross Country for three. He is a two year member of the Leo Club and is now serving as president. David was a member of the Spanish Club his first two years of high school.

A three year member of Troyans and Dolphinettes, Donna Jo Walton is Vice-President of both organizations. She is a member of F. S. A. and National Honor Society and was chosen for Louisiana Girls' State.

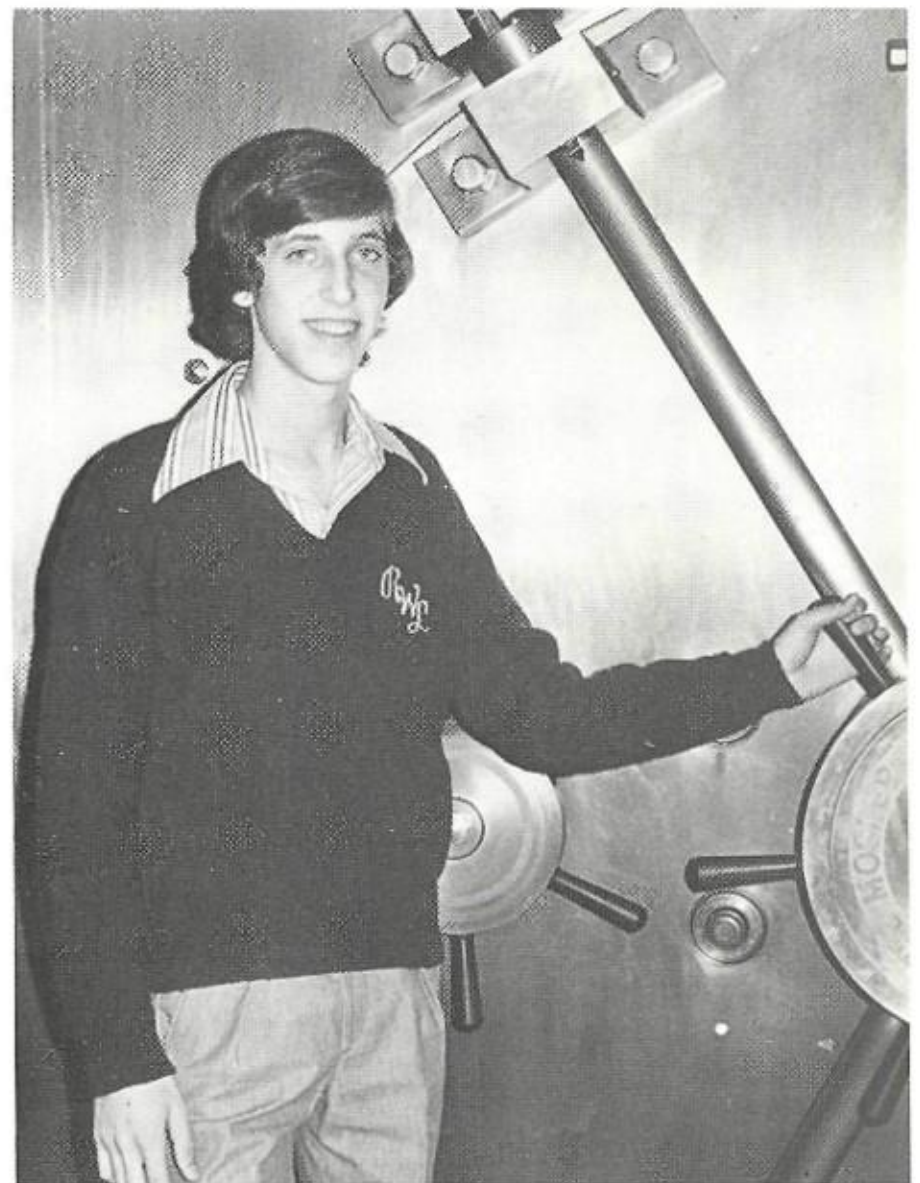

Rob Lowrey is presently serving three organizations as treasurer, the Leo Club, the National Honor Society, and the Senior Class. Rob is also Sports Editor of the EPIC and a member of Thespians, an international honorary speech organization.

Frances Huffman, chosen as a delegate for Louisiana Girls' State, is Vice-President for the National Honor Society. She is a Student Corps Worker and has been Vice-President of the Latin Club and Junior Class Treasurer. Frances is also a member of the Concert Choir and Alexandrians.

A member of Alexandrians and Honor Choir, Betty Jo Belvin also served as accompanist for Concert Choir. She has also served as secretary for her class for two years and was Vice-President of F. S. A. In addition, she is a member of National Honor Society.

Charlie McBride was a three year member of concert band, a three year member of the Jazz Ensemble, and a three year member of the Band Council. He is now in the National Honor Society and has been a member of both the Key Club and the Latin Club.

Homecoming Court

The eight girls who make up our Homecoming Court are selected by the entire student body. To be eligible for the preliminary ballot each girl must sell at least five season football tickets in an effort to raise money for the team.

The queen and the seven girls who make up the court represent A.S.H. during the Homecoming parade and, escorted by their fathers, are presented at the Homecoming football game.

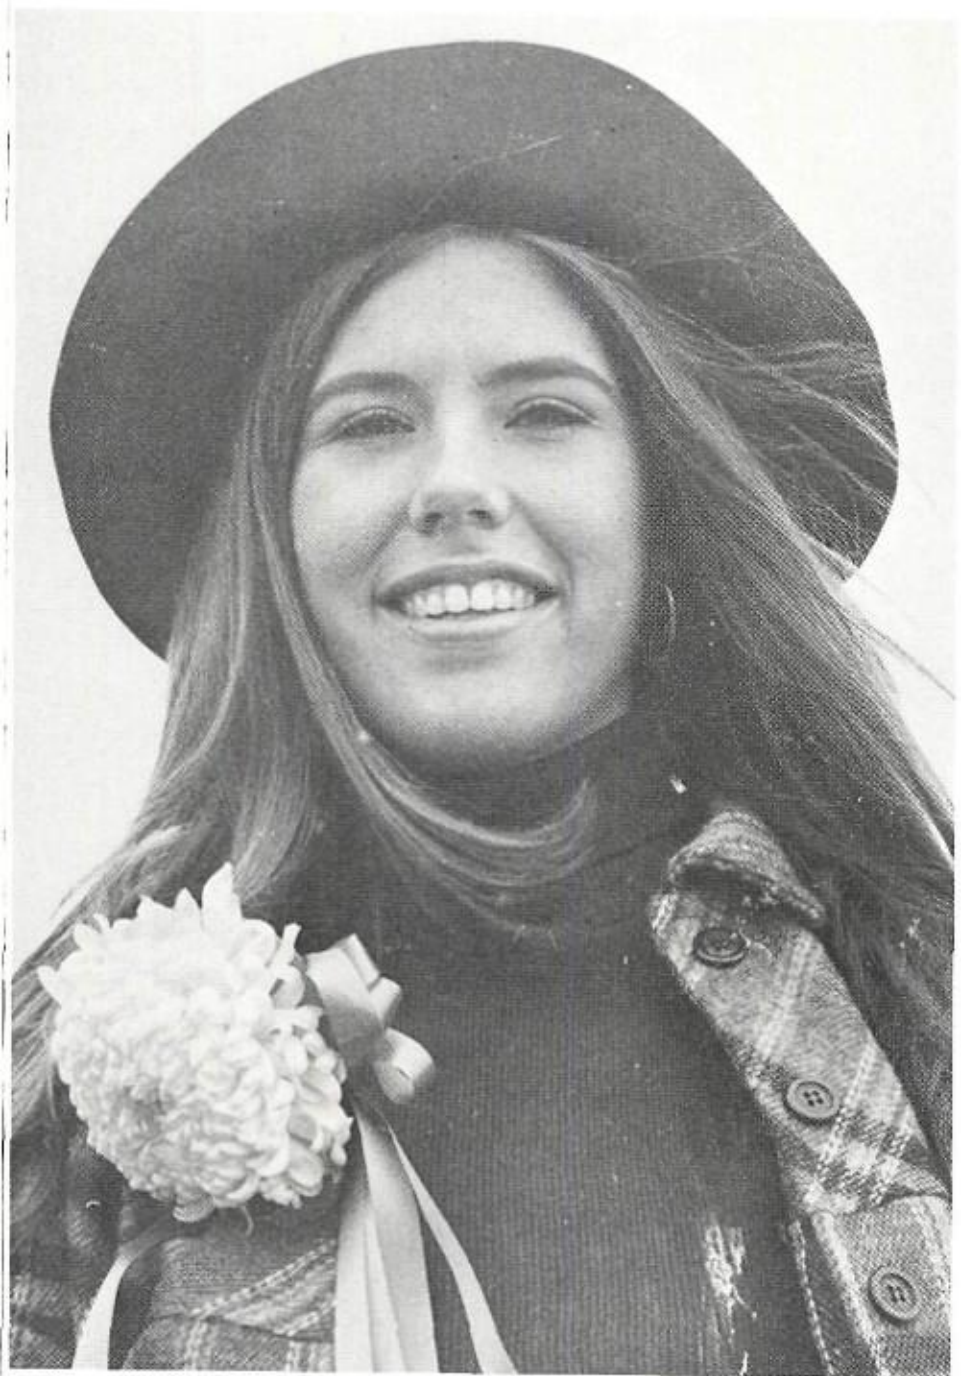

For weeks in advance, clubs and classes work to prepare floats for the parade, spirit tags are sold, the Homecoming dance is planned, and everyone willing to take up a brush is recruited to paint spirit-boosting signs.

The culmination of all this advance preparation is the Homecoming game itself. Each Trojan watches with pride as the players take their places on the field. Memories of the Homecoming pep rally and expectation of the Homecoming dance to follow add to the excitement of the game.

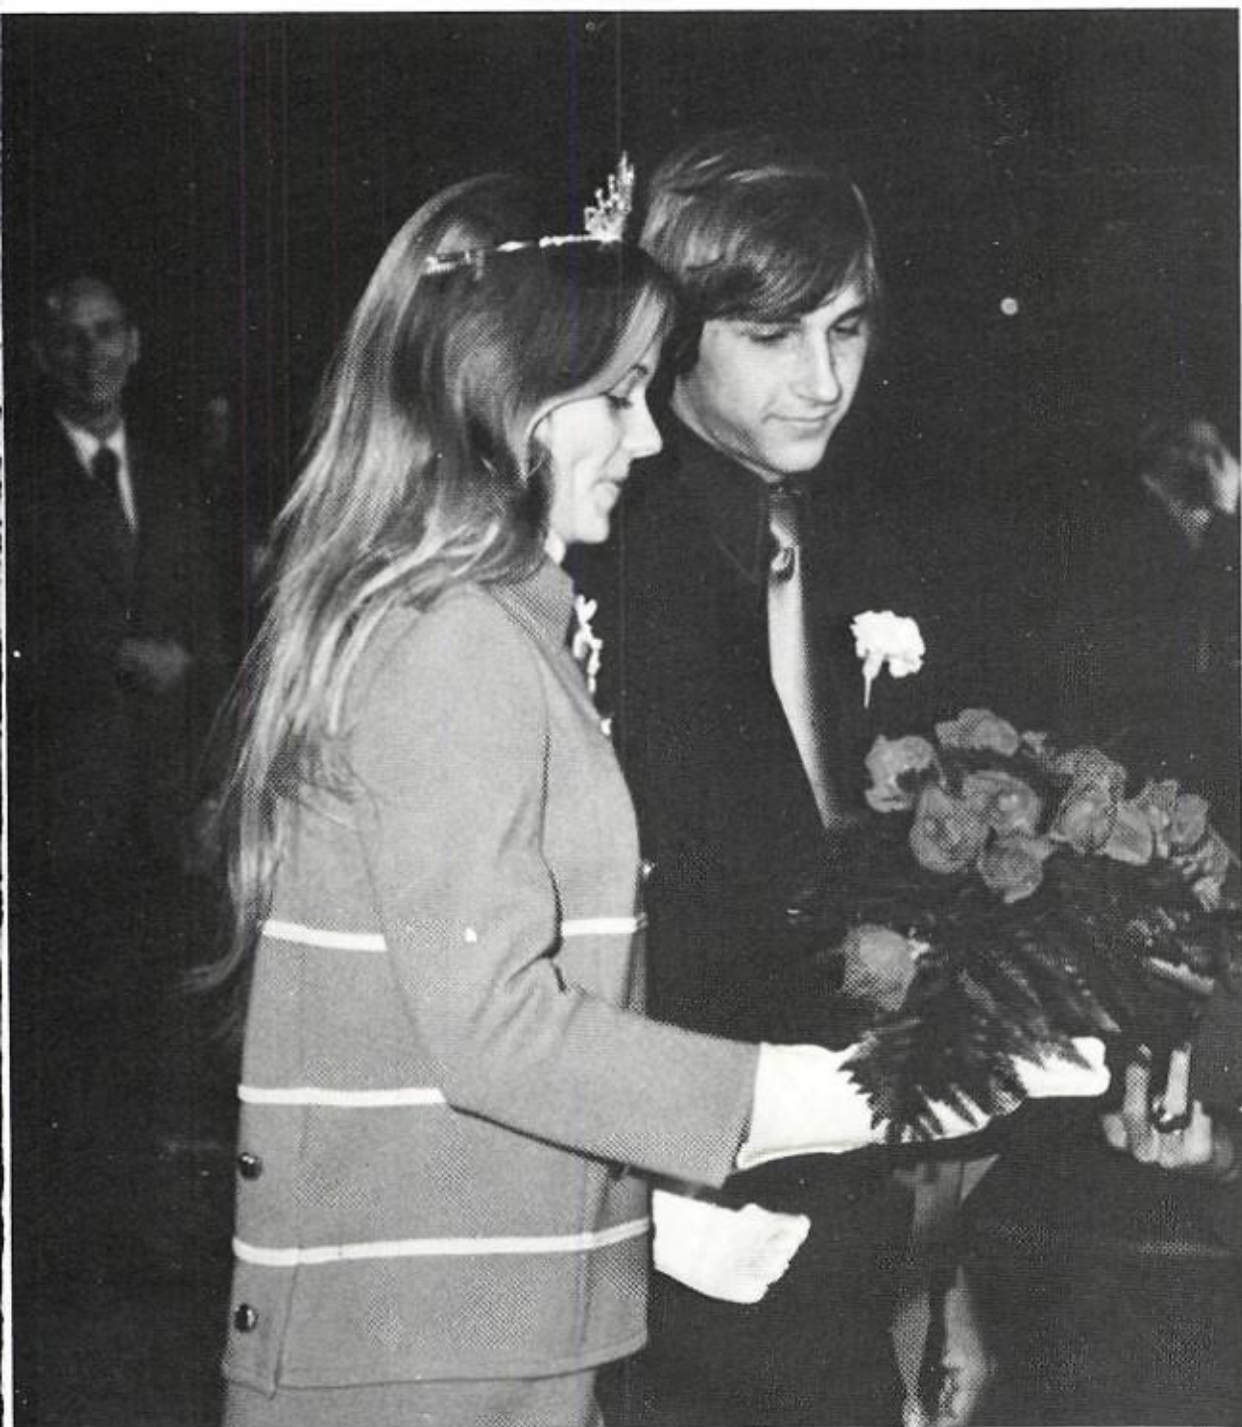

At half-time our band plays as the Court walks through the Trojan honor guard. After the girls are lined up facing the crowd, Mr. Bamburg crowns the queen as everyone in the stands rises to give the girls a standing ovation.

This is Homecoming — this is the Homecoming we will all remember.

1973 Basketball Court

Basketball Players Select Their Court

Each year the basketball players choose the girls they wish to serve on the Basketball Court. The girls are formally presented to the audience by the players at a basketball game. The names of the girls who compose the court are announced weeks ahead of time, but their order and the queen's name are not revealed until the night of the game. The year of '73 brought a continuation of the tradition of naming an annual Basketball Court.

Pelican State

Ask a Pelican Stater what he thought of his week long expedition into the mythical 51st state which forms the basis of Pelican State, and you will receive various answers. However, all students selected by the faculty to attend the event will agree that it is an experience to remember — one that provided a new environment, new friends, and new levels of understanding about our government. In addition, they spent countless hours writing speeches and campaigning in an effort to be elected to a governmental post.

Girls' and Boys' State gives participating students an accurate and sometimes overwhelming look at our American system. These "citizens" actually "act out" the process of writing and presenting bills, forming campaign platforms, and serving as various governmental officials. Most of all they learn by doing. These are future community, state, and even world leaders getting a "head start." Pel-State participants are those young people who have no use for second hand information. Initiative and drive prompts them to discover the underlying power of our nation for themselves.

Top ten percent of Senior Class

The students who are in the Top Ten percent of the graduating class are those who have reached true success — they have achieved honor and have received a reward for a job well done. While all Top Ten percenters are students who realize that A.S.H. is basically a place for learning — a place to prepare to advance to higher levels of education, most of these students are also actively involved in A.S.H. activities. Many are familiar faces around campus as they work for various clubs and organizations. Yet they have not deviated from their path of learning. Their high rankings represent hard work and superior minds. Who knows where their ability will take them?

And so

"THE CURTAIN FALLS"

on the year 1972-73.

On hopes — dreams —
accomplishments.

On a year of dress
codes — teacher transfers — and a snowstorm!

Whether

"on-stage" with school activities — or "off-stage" with extracurricular — every student has made his contribution
and all the parts have fit — one to the other — to create the whole. The final result has been a year of involvement.

We look to the continuity of the future — for "the curtain falls"

. . . only to rise again.

Mrs. Allen's Classes

Mrs. Allen, one of our English teachers, is known throughout the school for her fine sense of humor and unfailing Trojan spirit. Thanks to her encouragement and direction, all her classes pitched in to buy a full page ad in the EPIC. In this way they helped make our yearbook a better one since it is only through ads that the EPIC is made possible. Many thanks to Mrs. Allen and all her students who contributed toward the purchase of this page.
